

WHY ELIZABETH IS IN THIS FIGHT

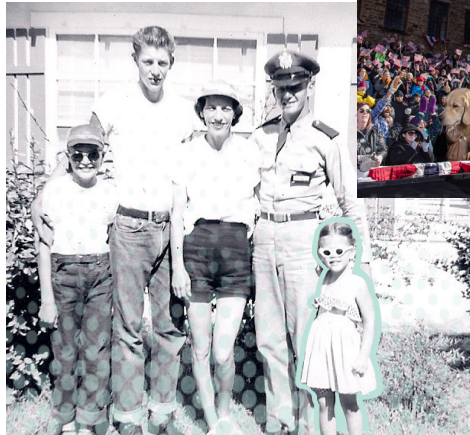

Elizabeth grew up on the ragged edge of the middle class in Oklahoma. Like many Americans, her path wasn't a straight line — she dropped out of college at age 19, got married, had babies, and continued her education thanks to a commuter college that cost $50 a semester. Elizabeth is the daughter of a janitor, who had the chance to become a teacher, a law professor, a U.S. Senator, and a presidential candidate because America invested in kids like her.

After Wall Street crashed our economy, Elizabeth went after the big banks who fleeced millions of Americans, fighting to create the country's first consumer watchdog agency. The CFPB has put over $12 billion back in the pockets of consumers. Running for office was never Elizabeth's plan. But this is the fight of our lives. The fight to build an America that works for everyone, not just the wealthy and the well-connected. It's going to take a champion for working people, with the vision for the big, structural change our country needs, to win.

REPRODUCTIVE FREEDOM

Congress can protect choice: Elizabeth's plan would protect access to reproductive care from right-wing ideologues in the states. These laws would protect our constitutional right to safe and legal abortion no matter what the Supreme Court does.

MAKE THE RICH PAY THEIR FAIR SHARE

Elizabeth's Ultra-Millionaire Tax would tax the wealth of the richest 75,000 American families at just two cents on every dollar over $50 million, so that they pay their fair share. This would fully fund student loan cancellation, free public college, universal child care, and more.
