

Quality and Environmental Policy

1.1 Strategic Direction

To provide the leading compliance and navigation platform for ship and shore.

1.2 Scope and Context of the Organisation

1.2.1 Context

Our business context is managed to ensure we remain innovative in navigation, regulation, safety and environmental compliance capturing the important issues that can affect our quality and environmental activities to continually improve our business performance for the outlined scope below:

1.2.2 Scope

Activities including and associated with the design, sales, delivery, aftersales of marine navigation and compliance products, services and data.

1.3 Policy Statement

- This policy provides the framework for the Senior Management who regularly sets and monitors the achievement of quality and environmental objectives for improvement.
- Board of Directors are accountable for the effectiveness of the Quality & Environmental system.
- We are committed to delivering solutions which stand up to the demands of an industry that is constantly changing.
- Our aim is to achieve and maintain a cost effective and profitable business to provide the levels of return and investment, whilst also running our operations efficiently and effectively to deliver customer satisfaction worldwide.
- The organisations activities, products and services are documented within our integrated management system to control risks and mitigate quality and environmental impacts.
- We are committed to protect the environment, prevent adverse environmental impacts through prevention of pollution protecting the natural environment from harm and degradation arising from our activities, products and services.
- Our business operations are carried out in accordance with applicable compliance obligations and other specific commitments relevant to the context of the organisation.
- We recognise the importance of maintaining our accredited certification of internationally recognised standards of quality and environmental.

All staff are aware of their responsibilities within our management system standards and are committed to its future success. The company supports the appropriate training to ensure the required skills are to the levels expected.

This policy will be communicated and made available to all our external interested parties where appropriate.

.....
Martin Taylor CEO LR OneOcean