

Algemeen Nederlands Tijdschrift voor Wijsbegeerte

The Dutch language journal Algemeen Nederlands Tijdschrift voor Wijsbegeerte (ANTW), founded in 1908, is a philosophical, academic journal that publishes original articles from authors in the Netherlands and Flanders. ANTW focuses on a broad variety of subjects, trends, discussions and periods in philosophy.

ANTW publishes four issues each year: Two focus Issues that contain one large article from a prominent Dutch or Flemish philosopher (Focus Article), followed by six shorter comments and a closing reply by the focus Author. One regular issue covering research articles, overview articles and congress reports. One themed issue in which circa six articles focus on certain subjects relevant in philosophy.
