Late Antique and Early Medieval Iberia

Scholarship on the Iberian Peninsula in Late Antiquity and the early middle ages is burgeoning across a variety of disciplines and time periods, but the publication profile of the field remains rather disjointed. No publisher focuses on this area and time period and there is certainly no series devoted to the topic. This series thus provides a hub for high-quality publications in the field of late antique and early medieval Iberian Studies.

The series moves beyond established chronological dividing lines in scholarship, which segregated Muslim Spain from 'barbarian' Spain, and 'barbarian' Spain from late Roman Spain. We also seek to be geographically inclusive, encouraging scholarship which explores the north of the peninsula, southern Gaul, and northern Africa insofar as they were integrated administratively, politically and economically with Hispania in our period.

Actively Seeking Proposals

The series welcomes scholarly monographs and edited volumes in English, by both established and early-career researchers.
