Visit the Hotel Casa del Mar for a truly luxurious vacation. Located on the beach in Santa Monica, California, this extravagant hotel is a member of The Leading Hotels of the World and is on the National Register of Historic Places. Known as one of the most luxurious beach hotels in Southern California, this hotel will provide you, your family, and friends with an unforgettable hotel experience.

Historical Overview

Founded with a dedication to extraordinary service and privacy, the beachfront Hotel Casa del Mar was originally built in 1926 (formerly known as Club Casa; reopened in October 1999 as Hotel Casa del Mar and owned by Edward Thomas) as the grandest of the deluxe beach club hotels. With its lavish renaissance revival décor, elegant accommodations, vivacious collective spaces, and an overall comforting environment, your experience here will be memorable.

Classic & Sophisticated Designs

The eight-story property features a brick-and-sandstone veneer, and offers 129 guest rooms; three extravagant, multi-level Penthouse Suites; and a single Presidential Suite with two bedrooms, a living and dining room, bar, hydrothermal massage tub, and more.

The interior decor, designed by celebrity designer Michael S. Smith, is elegant, luxurious and promotes a sophisticated environment that reflects the glamour of old Hollywood's elite. Guests will enjoy cozy rooms featuring Spanish titles, hand-blown glass beading, venetian-designed furnishings with soft blue color palettes alongside the latest technology: Bose speakers, 42-inch LCD flat screen, wireless Wi-Fi, and more.

The Santa Monica Pier

The hotel with unobstructed views of the Pacific Ocean is walking distance to Santa Monica's celebrated Pier, Third Street Promenade, the fashionable chic shopping and dining areas of Main Street and Montana Avenue. Take a stroll on the boardwalk, where you'll find gorgeous ocean views, a variety of restaurants, plus, fun games and rides.

Dining

Stop by Catch Restaurant for a cocktail and a sunset dining experience. The Santa Monica restaurant is known for their sushi, seafood, and stunning coastal views. Must-try appetizers include, the Crab Cake with piquillo pepper remoulade and the Yellow Fin Tuna Poke with a vegetable salad, radish, bamboo rice, and ponzu black peppercorn dressing. For a main dish, enjoy the Black Squid Ink Linguini served with mussels, clams, shrimp, calamari, and tomatoes. Their seared Chilean Sea Bass served with smoked white asparagus, manila clams, leeks and parsley sauce is another excellent choice.
