

GENDER EQUALITY: BETWEEN HARD AND SOFT LAW?

ROME, 20 JUNE 2024

MARCO MOCELLA

GEDI (GENDER EQUALITY AND ELIMINATION OF DISCRIMINATION)

- Jean Monnet Module
- GEDI course aims to promote gender equality and equal opportunity
- The team
- Marco MOCELLA - Valentina ANIBALLI - Katia FIORENZA - Mario CERBONE - Ana Murcia CLAVERÍA - María Luisa MOLERO MARAÑÓN
- International Teachers and experts

GEDI NUMBERS

- 62 teaching hours each year
- psychological and organisational impact
- comparing the solutions adopted by the Spanish and Italian legal systems
- Participants: in the first year over a thousand
- in the second year 400
- And an additional EUR 12,000.00

TODAY SEMINAR

- Different ways of approaching gender discrimination:
- International: ILO - Jean Michel Servais
- European

Elena Sychenko on European sustainability reporting standards

Olga Martin Gonzalez - EACEA project officer

Anna Casalino - Court of Justice of the European Union

TODAY SEMINAR

- Italian policies to reduce the gender gap
- parental leave
- gender certification - incentives :
 - a partially exempt from contributions
 - additional points in projects financed by national and regional European funds

ITALIAN SPEAKERS

- Valerio Maio, professor at the UnitelmaSapienza University
- Tiziana Pompei, Vice Secretary General of Unioncamere
- Mario Cerbone
- Anna Danesi
- Bianca Maria Orciani