

Fun with Captain Starlight

Games and activities to play at home

Do you have a favourite Superhero? I bet you do! Is your favourite the Miraculous Ladybug or Spiderman or even cough cough Captain Starlight? Let's celebrate all things super today!

Superhero Puppets

You Will Need:

- Two pieces of paper
- Coloured pencils
- A paddle pop stick
- Scissors
- Stick Tape

1. First, on one piece of paper draw a city at night. Start with some rectangles for buildings and add a long road at the bottom of your drawing.
2. Colour your city in!
3. Next, fold your cityscape picture in half and cut a slit into the road. Be careful not to cut all the way across and remember to ask for help if you need it!
4. Time to create a super hero! On your other piece of paper draw whatever kind of superhero you like and colour them in.
5. Carefully cut out your superhero and stick them onto the paddle pop stick.
6. Insert your superhero puppet into the slit at the bottom of your paper city and watch them fly! Can your superhero save the day?

Make Your Own Super Hero Outfits!

What is your superhero name? If you're Sloth Girl then maybe you could draw a cool sloth on your cuff!

Cuffs

You Will Need:

- A toilet paper roll
- Coloured textas
- Scissors

1. First, take your toilet paper roll and cut down the centre.
2. Stretch it open and make sure it fits comfortably around your wrist. (If it's hurting try putting tape along the cut edges!)
3. Time to decorate your cuff with your own signature hero pictures and shapes!

Mask

You Will Need:

- Mask template (on the next page)
- Coloured textas
- Scissors
- String
- Tape

1. Print the template on the next page, or draw your own mask shape.
2. Decorate your mask however you like. Captain Starlight went for a star (of course!) but you could draw anything you like.
3. Carefully cut out your mask.
4. Measure and cut a piece of string that fits around your head and tape it to your mask.
