Blended Spaces, Special Places

100 Trumbull Street is a newly renovated high-rise building located directly across the street from Bushnell Park. Its newly refurbished lobby is a prime example of the quality craftsmanship that you will experience traveling throughout.

The Lewis Street townhomes artfully contain luxury residences within exquisitely restored historic structures dating from the mid-1800s. The extensive renovation was accomplished without sacrificing charming details, such as fireplaces, exposed brick, and deep set windows.
