

neighbor

Evan Stephens Hall // Pinegrove

(capo 2)

E B7

little insect upside down & trying

B7 E

to right-side up itself felt by my right foot tapping

E B7

squirring mechanism & it spins & tips vertical

B7 E

but in my alien eye i can see he is beautiful

Aadd9 B7 E C#m7

well i love my neighbor i love his determined behavior

A A/G# B7 E

if it were me i probably might have just stayed there

E B7

mid-sized opossum in front of my house dying

B7 E

collided with a vehicle driving it out through the lightning

E B7

she falls down softly in the middle of the lane incoming

B7 E

& it's clearly incumbent on me to run out to her & do something

E B7

so i approach her there & i'm suddenly squirming

B7 E

& i'm scared & i'm tryna do right but i guess i desecrate everything

A^{add9} B⁷ E C#m⁷
well i love my neighbor i loved her courageous behavior

A A/G# B⁷ E
a ray now shines out of her mouth & it points back to nature

E B⁷
morning gosling echoing wide around me

B⁷ E
a V migrating down easy to a better climate

E B⁷
a startling shot rings out & now the geese are all screaming

B⁷ E
the marksman's adrenaline's up as he stands up smiling

A^{add9} B⁷ E C#m⁷
well i love my neighbor but don't understand his behavior

A A/G# B⁷ E
i love that bird but i don't ever want to take her
