little insect upside down & trying

B⁷

E

to right-side up itself felt by my right foot tapping

E

B⁷

squirming mechanism & it spins & tips vertical

E

but in my alien eye i can see he is beautiful

E

if it were me i probably might have just stayed there

E

B⁷

mid-sized opossum in front of my house dying

E

collided with a vehicle driving it out through the lightning

E

B⁷

she falls down softly in the middle of the lane incoming

E

& it's clearly incumbent on me to run out to her & do something

E

B⁷

so i approach her there & i'm suddenly squirming

E

& i'm scared & i'm tryna do right but i guess i desecrate everything

A^{add9} B⁷ E C^{#m7}
well i love my neighbor i loved her courageous behavior

A A/G# B⁷ E
a ray now shines out of her mouth & it points back to nature

E B⁷
morning gosling echoing wide around me

B⁷ E
a V migrating down easy to a better climate

E B⁷
a startling shot rings out & now the geese are all screaming

B⁷ E
the marksman's adrenaline's up as he stands up smiling

A^{add9} B⁷ E C^{#m7}
well i love my neighbor but don't understand his behavior

A A/G# B⁷ E i love that bird but i don't ever want to take her
