

	gradable adjectives	non-gradable adjectives Levels of quality	different levels	i/. the greatest level (to the extreme) ii/. Yes/No have comparative or superlative forms	✓ E.g. prettier, the prettiest E.g. more beautiful, the most beautiful	✗ - examples:	tired good cold angry bad hot wet interesting tasty afraid/scared/frightened	to the extreme exhausted excellent/perfect freezing furious terrible scorching/sweltering dripping/soaking amazing delicious terrified/horrified use with these adverbs:	really, so a bit, a little, slightly fairly, pretty very, extremely	really, so, absolutely, completely, totally utterly (used with certain adjectives): E.g. amazing, disappointed, exhausting