IN PRAISE OF THE SINGLE ESPRESSO

Single espressos are delicious. In many circumstances, it's the perfect amount of espresso to experience and taste. While it's true that all of our espressos default to double (both sides of a full espresso extraction), there are a great number of options for enjoying a single espresso without throwing out that other half.

THE WONDERFUL WORLD OF ONE AND ONE'S

BUDDY SHOT 4.5

we split the standard double shot of espresso into two glasses, for you to share with a friend.

ONE AND ONE 5.5

one half a single espresso, the other a single cappuccino. Also used as a catch-all term for any drink that splits the shot for an espress + espresso-based drink

BUSINESS AND PLEASURE 7.5

one half a single espresso (the business) the other a single shot almond macadamia cappuccino, slightle sweetened, shaken and served neat in a chilled glass (the pleasure)
