RECORD STORE DAY 2026

AIR CARGO MOVEMENTS FROM CHICAGO + LONDON

With a flurry of additional orders from most retailers, we are arranging for additional capacity at short notice.

We are booking additional space on the Qantas freighters from Chicago which are leaving on the weekend to reach Melbourne/Sydney by Wednesday.

We are also adding another flight from London to back up the weekend service and hope to have any shipments that cannot pass security screening in time on Friday on the next flight out on Monday in time to deliver on Thursday or Friday.

If you have any specific orders that you are concerned about, please let our import team (airimports.au@booksystems.com) know so they can follow up and assist.

If you are in possession of tracking details for current orders that are due to be with us for this week's flights, please let us have those so we can verify arrival dates at loading stations.
