

SMU CONFIRMS INTERIM DIVIDEND AMOUNT PER SHARE

Santiago, Chile. May 26, 2026. SMU S.A. (“SMU” or the “Company”) (Santiago Stock Exchange: SMU) filed an Essential Fact (Hecho Esencial) informing that the interim dividend to be paid next week (June 3, 2026) will be for an amount of CLP 0.05510 per share. This dividend is for 75% of net income for the first quarter, in accordance with the Company’s dividend policy.

This dividend was approved by SMU’s Board of Directors on May 11, and as the Company explained at the time, the final amount per share was subject to changes in the number of shares with economic rights, which excludes shares that have been repurchased as part of SMU’s share buyback program.

As the Company has purchased shares since the date the dividend was declared, the number of shares receiving the dividend has decreased, and the amount per share has increased with respect to the preliminary amount informed on May 11. The Company will not repurchase further shares between today and the dividend ex date (May 28), so the amount per share will not change.
