ACT I

It is Christmas Eve, and Clara can hardly wait for the party to begin. Friends arrive and everyone dances joyfully. Clara's eccentric uncle Drosselmeyer, a renowned toymaker, entertains the children with a puppet show, and a life sized ballerina doll. Then Drosselmeyer presents Clara with a wooden Nutcracker, which turns out to be her favorite gift.

Her jealous brother, Fritz, tries to grab the Nutcracker, and in the ensuing struggle, it breaks.

Drosselmeyer repairs the gift, the guests bid goodnight, and the family retires. But Clara cannot sleep without the Nutcracker, so she creeps back downstairs to retrieve it. Suddenly, she is accosted by a band of mice led by the evil Mouse Queen. In the face of Clara's danger, Drosselmeyer turns her Nutcracker into a handsome prince, who leads his toy soldiers into battle with the mice and vanquishes the Mouse Queen. The Nutcracker Prince leads Clara through the dancing snowflakes on her journey to the Kingdom of the Sweets.

ACT II

Clara and the Nutcracker Prince arrive at the Kingdom of the Sweets.

Angels greet them, and the Sugar Plum Fairy places Clara and the Prince upon her throne. They are entertained by Spanish Chocolate, Arabian Coffee, Chinese Tea, Marzipan Shepherdesses, Russian Trepak and Gingerbread Chefs. Even the Flowers of the Kingdom dance for Clara. As a finale, the Sugar Plum Fairy and her Cavalier dance a beautiful pas de deux.

But Clara grows sleepy, and as she bids farewell to the Kingdom of the Sweets, she arrives asleep back in her own house.
