	Music begins playing
CEO sitting in his office talking to the camera	Hello, I'm Scott Gesell, CEO here at Gateway First Bank. From the very first day we started Gateway in 2000 our business philosophy and mission have remained consistent....
Four people jogging through park	Strengthening families and the communities we serve.
Small child running into arms of parents in yard in front of house	To us, that means putting people first.
Mom holding sleeping infant	We want to be there for you – in your best moments
Father sitting with son looking at home destroyed by tornado	and your most uncertain ones,
Mom fixing graduation cap on daughter	through both heartache and joy.
Father lying on couch holding daughter in the air	We know that life can be uncertain and, no matter what, we always want the best for you
Couple jogging through park with infant in stroller	because, we're just like you too.
Car driving down a neighborhood street	We live in the same neighborhoods.
Children with backpacks walking in school hallway	Our kids go to the same schools.
Couple talking with Loan Originator	From a customer service perspective, we believe in timeliness,
Female Loan Originator smiling	transparency, and authenticity.
Small children running into home through front door with parents	Because that's what we'd want from anyone helping us with the most cherished parts of our lives.
Construction workers lifting house frame	And, we believe in providing you with the tools and experience you need
People sitting around table laughing	to craft the future you want,
Loan Origination team smiling	something we've done successfully now for the past 20-plus years.

CEO talking to camera	By helping you make your life easier, better, and more financially secure
People volunteering at food bank for Thanksgiving	we can build a stronger community, together.
CEO talking to camera	Because....well, that's the Gateway experience . Thank you for letting us have the opportunity to serve you.
