

Alloy DUMBO FAVORITES

“I spend pretty much every weekend in Brooklyn Bridge Park with my family. The Pirate Ship Playground and the Environmental Education Center are some of my boys’ favorite hangouts.”

— Tara Mrowka

“El Super Tacos during Lunchtime Under The Archway in the summer is by far my Dumbo favorite.”

— Jeff Sullivan

“Usagi is my favorite cup of coffee in the neighborhood, their baristas are the best. You can find it right across from 168.”

— Jen Steacy

“You can never go wrong with Bread and Spread’s breakfast sandwich. Also, they have the best playlist in town!”

— Sungwoo Choi

“St. Ann’s Warehouse has some of the best theater in NYC and the setting? An old tobacco warehouse.”

— David McCarty

“PowerHouse Books just opened a café. It’s up in the back and a great spot to have a drink and watch the book browsing below.”

— AJ Pires

“Taking in the beauty of the waterfront, riding the ferry, kayaking, and picnics.”

— Elise Wan

“Running through Brooklyn Bridge Park at sunrise is by far the best privilege of living in Dumbo. Check out Grand Electrica, home of the best spicy margaritas in NY.”

— Jared Della Valle

“I recommend everyone to go to Celestine and try the Mezze Platter. You can turn the occasion into a big meal or just enjoy it as a snack, but that with the view can make a great afternoon.”

— Brittany Hodges

“When I’m not sleeping, you can most certainly find me at Brooklyn Boulders.”

— Jen Grosso

“Love the view from Dumbo across the East River into Manhattan!”

— Jamali Worrell

— Ben Meade

“Dumbo’s rich history creates a unique neighborhood character as evidenced by one-of-a-kind architectural and urban artifacts!”

— Evan Wiskup

“Watching soccer and having a beer during Live at the Archway events is my Dumbo favorite!”

— Daniel Bernal

“You will love Burrow! In the great tradition of French-Japanese fusion pastisseries, they offer breads, cakes, pastries, cookies, and even sweets to take with your coffee. My favorite: Portuguese Egg Tart!”

— Katrina Yin

“Dumbo’s contrast between hard and soft infrastructure is brilliant.”

— Marco Alves

“Dumbo is a photographer’s haven—every corner is picturesque and the vibe sparks creativity.”

— Ali Militano
