

Ronald Heineman, CCU Trustee

Venture Capitalist

Ron has been a Christ-follower for over 40 years including serving as Trustee/Elder in the local church. He holds several degrees including graduate degrees in Clinical Counseling, Pastoral Counseling and Business.

Ron is the Principal and Managing Director of a venture capital firm with offices in Ohio, Kentucky, Texas, and Minnesota overseeing a wide range of investments. He is also a partner in the Queen City Angels venture fund.

As a licensed counselor, he consults with churches, non-profits, and businesses in the areas of restructuring/turnaround projects, finance, governance, pastoral/staff coaching, counseling and conflict management. Ron has assisted a number of companies, non-profits and churches.

He has served on numerous trustee boards including both private and public companies. In addition, he serves as an adjunct professor at Cincinnati Christian University and Cedarville University teaching in the Business and Psychology departments.

Ron has been married for 40 years and has two adult children who serve as a Christian school teacher and a Christian counselor.