

Legal Advocacy

Using the legal system and the courts to influence how policies are enforced or interpreted.

Primary methods include:

- Litigation (lawsuits) and administrative appeals.
- Composing or signing-on to an amicus curiae brief to the court.
- Providing support for legal defense organizations.
- Publicizing court cases to generate public support on an issue.

Source: Colorado Center on Law and Policy