THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Let us pray.

Almighty and everliving God, we humbly pray that, as your only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple, so we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts by Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST READING

Malachi 3:1-4

Please be seated.

Read by Clark Ervin.

Thus says the LORD, See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the LORD whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight—indeed, he is coming, says the LORD of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the LORD in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of old and as in former years.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

PSALM 24:7-10

Sung by the choir; chant by Joseph Barnby (1838–1896).

Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

“Who is this King of glory?” “The LORD, strong and mighty, the LORD, mighty in battle.”

Lift up your heads, O gates; lift them high, O everlasting doors; and the King of glory shall come in.

“Who is he, this King of glory?” “The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory.”

Children’s Chapel in the Parish House: All who wish may gather in front of the pulpit during the hymn and will return at the Peace. Parents are encouraged to accompany children younger than three.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Luke 2:22-40

Please remain standing as you are able.

Priest     The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People     Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, Jesus' parents brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord (as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord"), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying, "Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel."

And the child's father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, "This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed—and a sword will pierce your own soul too."

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshiped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him.

Priest     The Gospel of the Lord.
People     Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Following the Gospel, all sing stanza 5 of the gradual hymn.

THE SERMON

The Rev. Sarah Akes-Cardwell

THE NICENE CREED

Please stand as you are able.

Let us affirm our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed.

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Please remain standing as you are able.

Priest The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Priest Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The priest continues

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Because in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you have caused a new light to shine in our hearts, to give the knowledge of your glory in the face of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS (S-129) Sung by all.

Robert Powell

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est._____

Please stand or kneel as you are able. The priest continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

People We remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all, presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with St. John and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Priest And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

FRACTION ANTHEM (S-163) Sung by all.

Robert Powell

sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us.
Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

Priest The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All persons, including children, are welcome to receive Holy Communion with us. Wait for an usher to call your pew to come forward. You will first be handed a wafer by a priest (gluten-free wafers are available by request) and then offered wine by a lay server. You may either sip the wine or dip your wafer into the wine. Receiving the bread alone is a valid way to share in the Eucharist. Parents may decide if their children receive the bread and/or wine. All may instead signal their desire to be blessed by the priest by crossing their arms over their chest.

COMMUNION ANTHEM

Charles Villiers Stanford (1852–1924)

which thou hast prepared before the face of all people,
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles,
and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

ST. JOHN'S BOOK GROUP

Thursday, February 6, at 7 p.m.

Join us via Zoom to discuss American Midnight: The Great War, a Violent Peace, and Democracy's Forgotten Crisis. In this book, Adam Hochschild offers a reassessment of the period between World War I and the Roaring Twenties, during which the foundations of American democracy were threatened by war, pandemic, and violence fueled by battles over race, immigration, and the rights of labor. The book group typically meets on the first Thursday of the month at 7 p.m. For information and the link, please contact leader Janet Edmond via the online directory at stjohns-dc.org/connect/directory.

PLEDGE TO ST. JOHN'S

As of Wednesday, January 29, we had received 285 pledges totalling $1,117,800.

Thank you to all who have already pledged for this calendar year. Pledging today, if you have not yet done so, will help determine what St. John's budget will be. All pledges are welcome, no matter how big or small. If you are able to increase your pledge this year, it will greatly impact the growth of our programs to better serve our entire parish community. You can pledge either with a physical pledge card, available at the front desk or in the narthex of the church, or by visiting stjohns-dc.org/give/pledge to complete an online pledge form. Thank you!

SPECIAL SERVICE CELEBRATING THE LEGACY OF DESMOND TUTU

Sunday, February 23, at 11 a.m.

On Sunday, February 23, we will celebrate the legacy of Archbishop Desmond Tutu during a service that includes special music and a sermon by the Rt. Rev. Eugene Sutton, recently retired Bishop of Maryland. The Archbishop was formerly primate of the Anglican Church of Southern Africa, a Nobel Peace Prize recipient for his leadership in the struggle against apartheid in South Africa, and a good friend of the Episcopal Church in Washington. The service will include the world premiere of a newly commissioned work of sacred choral music titled Ubuntu and composed by the award-winning South African composer Franco Prinsloo. The cantata reflects the values shared by St. John's Church and Archbishop Tutu: justice, peace, and unity. It draws inspiration from the painting of Archbishop Tutu that protected St. John's historic Parish House after the protests around the murder of George Floyd in 2020. Plans are underway for several of the paintings that protected our buildings to be accessioned by the Smithsonian Museum of African American History and Culture. The painting of Archbishop Tutu will be on display at St. John's as we premiere the musical work that it inspired. The speaker series proceeding the service will be a presentation and Q&A with the composer, who will be joining us live via video from South Africa. Please invite your friends and plan to join us for this special morning.

N STREET VILLAGE SUPPLY DRIVE
Now through March 30

The Sisters at St. John's are partnering with N Street Village, a local group that supports D.C. women experiencing homelessness by offering a broad spectrum of services, housing, and advocacy in an atmosphere of dignity and respect. Now through the end of March, we are collecting a variety of necessities, including travel sizes of toothpaste, body wash, shampoo, lotion, and deodorant, as well as cleaning supplies, dishwashing soap, paper towels, toilet paper, women's underwear (sizes 7, 8, 11, and 12), and adult incontinence items (M-XXL). To donate, please bring any of the above items to church with you and leave them in the basket by the reception area in the Parish House. Or you can skip the hassle and order supplies via the online wish list found at bit.ly/sisters-supplies-2024. Thank you!

CONSIDER JOINING THE FLOWER GUILD

Whether you want to develop a new skill or expand on an existing talent, being a member of the Flower Guild is a rewarding way to volunteer at St. John's while also acquiring new friendships. No experience is needed; newcomers are paired with experienced members who mentor them until they are fully fledged, confident flower arrangers. Arranging typically takes place on Saturday mornings. To learn more or get involved, please contact Flower Guild leader Katherine Kyle at stjohns-dc.org/connect/directory.

BAPTISMS

If you are interested in baptism for yourself or for a child, please contact Lisa Koehler via the About: Leadership tab on our website. Please note that the parents or grandparents of children being baptized must be active, pledging members of St. John's. Adults interested in baptism must also attend an Adult Inquirers' Class, offered twice a year, and be active, pledging participants in the life of the parish. Upcoming dates for baptism and required pre-baptismal classes with the clergy at St. John's include:

- Sunday, February 9, at 9 a.m.
Class: Saturday, February 8, at 10 a.m.

Class: Saturday, March 1, at 10 a.m.

Class: Saturday, April 26, at 10 a.m.

SUNDAY PARISH LUNCH
Most Sundays after the 11 a.m. service

The Sunday lunch tradition relies on volunteers to prepare and serve the meal—which is why we encourage individuals, families, groups, or ministries to host at least once per program year. Hosts may be reimbursed for expenses or receive a tax receipt. Not sure what's involved? Want to claim an open date? Contact Parish Lunch coordinator Holly Sukenik at stjohns-dc.org/connect/directory.

GRACE'S TABLE

Third Saturdays, from 10:30 a.m to 12:30 p.m.

Upcoming Dates: February 15 and March 15

Grace's Table is an outreach partnership between St. John's and Grace Episcopal Church in Georgetown. Every third Saturday of the month, a group from St. John's prepares and serves a meal at Grace to folks who are unhoused or at risk of losing their housing. Volunteers purchase and prepare food (including casseroles, rolls, salad, and dessert) and/or serve the guests. Typically, as many as 60 or 70 guests come seeking food and fellowship. This is a wonderful opportunity to get to know other St. John's parishioners and to spread God's loving kindness in our community. Contact leader Elizabeth Field using the Connect: Ministry Directory tab of our website with questions, or visit bit.ly/sjc-graces-table-1224 to volunteer.

The Latrobe Fellowship is an active and engaged group of adults, primarily in their 20s and 30s. ## 2025 Candidates for Wardens (uncontested)

NORA RIGBY is a lifelong Episcopalian and has been a member of St. John's since 2006. Originally from Baton Rouge, Nora graduated from Tulane University and Vanderbilt University Law School. She and her husband Hap have lived in D.C. since 2004 when they moved here with the plan to stay for "a couple of years." Nora and Hap attend the 11 a.m. service and live in Northwest D.C. with their children, Powe and Lizzie, who were both baptized at St. John's. In her professional life, Nora is a partner at a law firm specializing in consumer financial regulatory law. She previously worked for almost 10 years at the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. In her free time, Nora enjoys playing tennis, reading contemporary fiction, and seeing live music. At St. John's, Nora has served as both Junior and Senior Warden, on the Vestry since 2019, and as a member of the Usher Guild for many years, currently as an Assistant Head Usher. She served on the Regathering Committee in 2020 and taught church school for several years, both Godly Play to preschoolers and the teen Confirmation Class.

ALFRED THESMAR is a lifelong Episcopalian who joined St. John's in 2002 after moving to the area with his wife, Hilary. Their two children, Elizabeth and Cooper, were baptized at St. John's and are active in the youth programs. Alfred has served many years as an usher and has been an Assistant Head Usher for the 8 and 9 a.m. services since 2017. He has also been serving on the Stewardship committee for the past two years and prior to that he took several terms as a self-described "Sergeant-at-Arms" for the Godly Play program. He has served as Junior Warden on the Vestry and welcomes the opportunity to continue the important work of realizing St. John's strategic plans. In the greater community, he was a long-term volunteer with the Falls Church Kiwanis Little League and is currently the Scoutmaster of a Scouts BSA troop in McLean, Virginia. Alfred earned his bachelor's degree from the Georgia Institute of Technology and his master's degree from the Owen Graduate School of Management at Vanderbilt University. # 2025 Candidates for Vestry

(vote for three)

BRIAN CORDOVA-BROOKEY and his husband, Kevin, met in Pasadena, Calif., in 2005. Having each endured painful church experiences after coming out, they found a place of healing in a small local congregation of the United Church of Christ, which welcomed them and their three children. Brian sang in the choir and served several years in leadership, including two as Moderator (the UCC equivalent of Senior Warden). After moving to D.C., they explored a number of church options. They began attending St. John's regularly in 2022, and became members in 2023. Brian serves as an usher and reader; assists Kevin in leading the annual Angel Tree Drive; and is co-chair of St. John's Pride, the thriving LGBTQ+ fellowship. Brian attended Pepperdine University and UCLA School of Law. He is a partner with the firm Tucker Ellis LLP, specializing in intellectual property litigation.

DOUG ESTES is married to Sylvia Martin-Estes and they have two sons, Philip and David. Natives of Atlanta, they have lived in the D.C. area since 2012 and have been members at St. John's since 2013. They find the clerical staff and priests remarkable, the music nothing short of transformative, and they love their church family. Doug has served for 11 years as usher and chalice bearer. Doug works as a Civil/Structural Engineer for General Services Administration. He has 36 years of non-profit experience and serves as a board member with RiverArts, a non-profit in Chestertown, Md., and is involved with the Chesapeake Landing Community Association; his strengths are financial analysis, capital asset planning, logistics, and project management.

DEBBY HAILEY is a lifelong Episcopalian. Her family began coming to St. John's in 1963, when she was eight, and other than four years away at Wellesley College, she has attended church here ever since. Debby was married here in 1982, and her four children and some of her nine grandchildren were baptized here. Debby taught elementary school at three different local private schools; she even drove a school bus! For the past 18 years, she has managed a nonprofit that raises funds for Canterbury Cathedral in England, the mother church of the Anglican Communion. Debby has served St. John's in a variety of roles, including Vestry member, Vestry nominating committee member, Church School teacher, reader, Parish lunch coordinator, and Christmas pageant director. She was the acolyte coordinator for 25 years. Debby currently is a chalice bearer and a member of the Pastoral Care Committee.

LAURA HERZOG Laura Lefler Herzog has been an active member of St. John's since 2003, having served on the Vestry, as a Church School teacher and Sandwich Sunday coordinator, on the Investment, Search, and Welcome Committees, as costume coordinator for the Christmas Eve Nativity Pageant, and as a lay reader. Whether discussing church policy, buying 1,000 slices of bologna, chaperoning a teen lock-in while eight months pregnant, interviewing assistant rector candidates, or dressing angels, shepherds and friendly beasts, Laura seeks to bring heart, humility, and humor to our church family. Laura and her husband, John, were married at St. John's in 2009. They have participated in pilgrimages to South Africa and the Holy Land and are avid cheerleaders for the Bishop Walker School for Boys. A native Tennessean, Laura spent 18 years advising the Volunteer State's U.S. senators and governor on communications. She now attempts to advise (with varying success) her 'tween/teenage children, Jack (13) and Lucy (10). The Herzogs live in northwest Washington. Based on the family calendar, they alternate between the 9 and 11 a.m. services.

WELCOME!

At St. John's Church, we believe Christ is calling us to be a renewed church in a changing world. Empowered by the Spirit of God, we respond to Jesus' call as we deepen our bond with Christ through worship, become a community where all are accepted, and work together as laity and clergy to do God's work in the world.

St. John's was organized in 1815 to serve as a parish church for Episcopalians residing in the neighborhoods in the west end of the District of Columbia. Its cornerstone was laid on September 14, 1815, and it was consecrated on December 27, 1816. Beginning with James Madison, every person who has held the office of President of the United States has attended a service at the church. Several Presidents have been communicants. Thus, St. John's is often referred to as the "Church of the Presidents." Pew 54 is the President's Pew. The architect of the church was Benjamin Henry Latrobe, who assisted in the rebuilding of the U.S. Capitol and the White House after the War of 1812. Twenty-five of the stained glass windows in St. John's were designed and executed by artisans of the noted Lorin firm of Chartres, France.

If you are visiting, please fill out the visitor information card found at the end of each pew to enable us to welcome you personally into the life of our parish.

St. John's website (www.stjohns-dc.org) has up-to-date information about the church including the Sunday service schedule, Speaker Series speakers and topics, and newsworthy events.
