Suggested prayer

Dear Lord,

At this wonderful time of year, where we come together to celebrate the birth of Jesus and all that you have done for us, let us also consider those less fortunate. We pray for the 11,000 households in Scotland that are homeless and living in temporary accommodation.

Please bless the work of Shelter Scotland, as they endeavour to defend everyone's right to a safe home. As we reflect on the struggles of people dealing with homelessness and bad housing, we pray that with Shelter Scotland's support, they can get back to a good place.

Amen

Consider reflecting upon the parable of the Good Samaritan

(Luke 10:25-37)

This parable demonstrates to us how we can be a good neighbour to homeless people in our communities. It's difficult to know what to do when you notice more people sleeping rough than ever before.

In the story of the Good Samaritan, a man took it upon himself not to walk away.

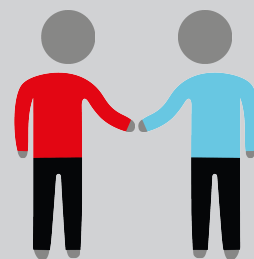

He bandaged the traveller's wounds, took him to an inn and looked after him.

The traveller in The Good Samaritan did not intend to get himself injured. Similarly, no one thinks that one day, they'll be homeless.

But for 11,000 households in Scotland, this is their reality. They are stuck in temporary accommodation without a place to call their own. This is because the system has failed them. Shelter Scotland are here to get them back to a good place.

You can make a difference.

Your support can help fund incredible work, and ensure that no one has to fight homelessness alone. With your help, we can fight for people's rights to a safe home.
