

Western Fjords Hike

9 days - Active independent tour of the Western Fjords, travelling along the coast of Norway with private 50DN minivan

Highlights of the tour include a hike up to two most famous peaks in Bergen, Mount Ulriken and Mount Fløyen, hike on Europe's highest sea cliff Hornelen and exciting hike Via Ferrata Loen that takes you up to Mt. Hoven and across 160 meters deep canyon on a new suspension bridge

The standard tour includes twin-share hotel accommodation in historic waterfront hotels such as Clarion Hotel Admiral in Bergen, Hotel Alexandra at Loen and Hotel Brosundet in Ålesund.

NOTE: The hikes are challenging and require good level of fitness and endurance. Some of the trails are steep and challenging, suitable for experienced hikers. You should be used to walking in the mountains and in the terrain. Hikes could be modified and less adventurous travellers could do softer day tours. Ask us for details.

famous peaks in Bergen, Mount Ulriken and Mount Fløyen. This is an excellent way to experience Norwegian nature like the locals.

Take an express ferry along the coast and travel to Smørhamn. Enjoy free afternoon exploring the area.

Today you will hike on the Europe's highest sea cliff. Hornelen Mountain rises up to 860 meters from sea level and from the top you'll get unspoilt scenery.

This morning, meet your minivan and driver. Travel along the magnificent Nordfjord to Loen.

Today you will join a guided hike up to Mt. Hoven. Via Ferrata is an exciting hike that crosses a suspension bridge across a 160 meter deep canyon.

Today you will travel from Loen via Hjørundfjord to Ålesund - your final lég of thé journey by minivan. You'll stop along the way and enjoy lunch at the historical Hotel Union Øye.

Today you will get close to nature when you join an exciting Wildlife Sea Safari.

Departure day.

$4,769 Standard Tour /from price per person

$1,157 Single Supplement