

Norway by Design and History with Juvet

9 days - Historic and Design Hotels of Norway - an independent self-drive through the fjords and coast of Norway

If you are into setting your own pace, want to see some spectacular areas away from the tourist traps, and like good food & great hospitality, then this self-drive itinerary is for you! The Norwegian mountains and fjords are home to some of the most picturesque landscapes and this trip takes you to some prized secrets.

The accommodation we use in this itinerary are worth the trip themselves. They are a collection of houses, manors, large and small timber-built hotels and old coaching inns that have been transformed into beautiful, romantic hotels. This, and the passion shown by the hosts, is what primarily characterises this self-drive experience!

Highlights include a night at the Juvet Landscape Hotel, drive through the dramatic hairpin bends of the Troll Road, visit Geirangerfjord and drive the Atlantic Road which zigzags across low bridges that jut out over the ocean.

Included

- All hotel accommodation in shared double/twin room with private facilities (with fjord/harbor view where possible)
- Daily breakfast, and 6 half board dinners
- Car hire 8 days, Group C including CDW, free mileage & one way fee (from Bergen to Trondheim)
- 24-hour emergency service
- Taxes and service fees
