- Handle phone calls from agents and clients regarding bookings to alleviate the sales team's workload.
- Oversee customer care inboxes.
- Maintain a detailed log of inquiries and responses to guarantee timely follow-up and resolution.
- Provide clients with timely travel advice and booking updates, acting as a supportive secondary point of contact.
- Address client inquiries and resolve issues promptly and professionally to ensure high client satisfaction.

2. Booking Management

- Support Destination Administrators in confirming travel details and ensuring all required documents are collected from clients.
- Liaise with hotels and other travel suppliers to confirm bookings and reservations where required.
- Ensure accurate updating and maintenance of all booking records in the company's systems.
- Ensure necessary travel information is obtained from the client and update the respective booking records.
- Support Destination Administrators in managing last-minute bookings.

3. Financial Management

- Assist Destination Specialists and Administrators in handling cancellations, refunds, and insurance letters for booking changes ensuring the travel platform reflects accurate information.
- Monitor balance payment invoices and send them to clients when required.
- Provide official balance breakdown letters to travel agents upon request, including commission details.

4. Team Collaboration

- Work closely with Destination Specialists to ensure smooth handovers and consistent communication.
- Actively participate in weekly sales meetings to discuss progress, share updates, and provide constructive feedback.
- Contribute to team success by suggesting improvements and adding valuable agenda items for team meetings.
- Collaborate with marketing and product development teams to continuously improve travel packages and client experiences.

5. Training and Development

- Conduct thorough research on Nordic destinations to stay updated with the latest travel trends and attractions.
- Support the training of new staff members on administrative support, booking procedures, and company policies.

- Continuously stay updated on industry trends, as well as 50DN products and services.
