Enfield Island Youth Community Trust (EIYCT)

Presented locally as 'enact community'
Annual Report 2022-2023

Introduction from our Chairman

On behalf of the Trustees and the team, it is my pleasure to present the enact annual report for financial year ending in March 2023. The formal name of enact is the Enfield Island Youth & Community Trust (EIYCT). Working together with partners, a group of us set up enact twenty years ago. Since that time, we have supported hundreds of children, young people, and families from Enfield Lock and further afield of which we are very proud.

The universal nature of our provision remains a core feature as it enables us to work with the broadest cohort of the community. It gives space for positive relationships to form between workers and participants and trust is built enabling targeted work to be identified and addressed. Our model is hard to fund but as a Board, we are determined that the whole community has an opportunity to engage in positive activities.

I am pleased to report that the team of Manju Jnagal as Team Leader, Nathan as a trainee youth worker working alongside Manju to run youth provisions and Natasha Greenway leading on Children and Families continues to provide a wide range of focused activities in a fun environment where youngsters can develop personally be part of a wider community of friends. Our sessional workers are an integral part of the team and are a crucial to our ability to deliver for the community. Also, we have volunteers without whom we would not be able to operate, their help and commitment is much appreciated. We are however continuing to find it more difficult to recruit volunteers.

The finances in the 2022/23 year were satisfactory although the current year started with the Trustees setting "deficit" budget, a first for enact and clearly a risk but we had sufficient reserves to cover it if more funding was not secured. The RSA Trust continues to provide core funding which is greatly appreciated and needed. However the team was successful in securing a further round of National Lottery funding for three years plus funding from Metaswitch EBT also for three years.

This year we are very fortunate in finding an additional Trustee, Rebecca Sycamore who brings a wealth of experience in the charity sector and is proving to be a brilliant find. Mark Hayes has reluctantly stood down as a Trustee and we thank him for his contribution. We are looking to expand the Trustee team including increasing the diversity of the Trustees so that we have a set of Trustees in place for the future especially as some of the long standing trustees inevitably stand down. I would like to thank my fellow trustees Doreen Willis and Graham Jimpson who continue to give great support. We are fortunate to have Sam Ellis from the Oasis Community Partnership who attends our meetings and give us good help and advice. Our partnership with OASIS continues to flourish. We continue to get vital support from our other sponsors including Metaswitch, Oasis, The Jack Petchey Foundation, LBE, and many others.

Thanks also to the great support from Michelle Kyprianou who administers our accounts and writes the minutes of Trust meetings and Josie Atkinson who has taken over managing our database as well as her other work. Patrick Gray from the RSA Trust office continues to help and support the youth team and is instrumental in working with enact to bring to life the history of the local area.

My final words are to not only thank once more the team, advisors to the board and Trustees for their hard work, but also to thank the RSA Trust, who have supported us since 2003 and in that time have given well over £1million to support the work of enact.

Engaging with the local community, actively listening to their concerns, and involving them in consultations, we've discerned pressing issues: Many families in this area find extracurricular activities financially prohibitive. Our interactions have illuminated the broader challenges stemming from the cost-of-living crisis, safety, mental health concerns relating directly to health and wellbeing. As experienced practitioners, we recognise the importance of providing activities to respond to these needs whilst fostering familial bonds, facilitating growth, instilling confidence and nurturing aspirations.

Enact youth is a safe place where young people can build positive relationships, learn something new without the fear of judgement, feel safe and be around with peers. Young people are supported by trained JNC and level 2 youth workers and adult volunteers.

As a charity we aim to maintain our Open Access youth provision, where we can create safe spaces and explore what issues young people truly faced with all our youth work being youth led and when applying for funding we ensure it meets the needs of the community. We are in the heart of Enfield Island Village and understand the difficulties faced by young people and their families as we build relationships with them all.

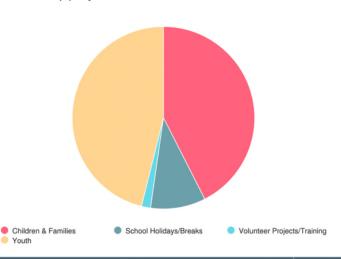

We are able to identify the needs of young people via outreach, engagement from Instagram, learning from other charities and organisations, collaborating with others and developing our projects by having community consultation and evaluating our projects.

The focus:

- Developing senior young leaders who would help support in junior youth projects.
- Developing our partnerships with other agencies such as collaborating with other youth clubs – Prospex (a multi award winning youth charity).
- Life skills such as preparing food.

Partnership Work

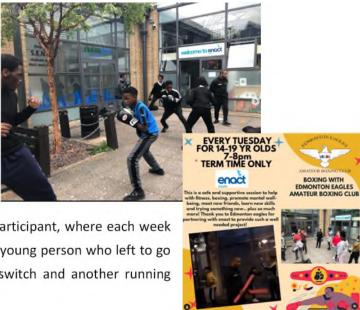

Edmonton Eagles - Boxing Coaching

Youth

This partnership has been key to health and fitness activities at enact. We have Dom from Edmonton Eagles who runs group work sessions at enact every Tuesday term time. Dom has been integral to active project delivery and we continue to see young people thrive in these sessions contributing to better physical and mental health. We now have a leaderboard which incentivizes young people to participant, where each week they can see their progression. We have awarded a young person who left to go to university a laptop which was funded by Metaswitch and another running trainers from the Nike store.

enact Kids Club Project Summary 2022-2023

Kids Club is the name of our work with children aged 0-11

The Reaching Communities Fund enabled the team to develop our stay and play group to bring more play and learning activities that had a focus on 0-5s development, school readiness and information and support for parents. Being able to rent a larger venue and bring in equipment that promotes the five main areas of child development has meant that locally we have stood out as a provision that provides excellent support and opportunities for local families. We know this through the number of families which have been signposted to us via professionals and children and family practitioners for example, Social Work Teams, Health visitors and Enfield Children's Disabled Service.

Enact has been a place where local foster carers can bring their parent and child placements, thus acting as a safe and supportive place where professional/statutory assessments can be carried out. We have facilitated families who are going through the adoptive process by providing an opportunity to see their perspective children in a social play and learning environment.

7 – 11 year olds

Kids Club meet Thursday after school. Kids Club is about fun, a relaxed social space, an opportunity to learn new skills and try new crafts and games. Each session teaches our six club values, Honesty, Respect, Positive to learning, Positive to Others, Self-confidence, Celebrates Success.

Children improve social confidence and resilience, they have increased opportunity to try new experiences and build positive social support networks. In addition, we expect parents and families to gain 'non-statutory' support, advocacy and advice, to build social support networks and develop greater resilience.

At kids club we were able to provide opportunities for children to join football and multisport clubs which meant we were able to reach even more children that were not yet accessing any of the children and family provisions. Within these clubs, children were not only taught new skills and games, but there was a focus on building friendships, confidence and self-esteem and once children had finished their term at the club they were then invited to join the kids club and continue their journey of being part of a community group. Due to funding and the funding coming to a close, we had to shut one project night and run two fortnightly sessions on Thursdays. We want to continue to run these sessions but understand funding restrictions.

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:
