2023 CELLAR MASTERS

LUIS OBREGON

A while ago, Luis decided to leave his Mexican homeland and embrace the Canadian winter to enroll in SAIT's culinary program. After graduating, he started working for Rouge Restaurant in Inglewood. It was there he fell in love with wine and decided to leave everything behind and move to France to complete his sommelier certificate at the Université du Vin. He then spent five months visiting every wine region in the country, covering over 15,000 km.

Luis also holds a diploma in Single Malt Whisky from the EWA in Edinburgh, Scotland. He currently works as a culinary instructor, is a sommelier for Market Wines and owns a private wine tasting company.

ANDREW PAULSEN

Andrew is originally from Australia where he studied wine from a marketing perspective, developing a liking for shiraz and syrah. An interest in history and travel led Andrew to Canada where he now permanently resides.

During his now 25 plus years in Calgary, Andrew has been involved in the food and beverage business becoming a sommelier and instructor with both the International Sommelier Guild and the Wine Spirits Education Trust (WSET).

Andrew is also a Certified Cicerone (beer sommelier), a recent grandfather and has been working for Calgary Co-op Wine Spirits Beer for 10 years. "Champagne and Italian wines are where my palate wanders".

FILIFE MENDES

Filipe has worked with the Calgary Stampede since 2007, starting in The Lazy S as lead bartender and later as an operations manager. He has been in the food and beverage industry for over 20 years.

Filipe takes great pride in empowering people by coaching them to identify what they love in wine and to later be able to replicate these enjoyable experiences on their own. He completed his Wine Spirits Education Trust (WSET, level III) advanced certificate and has been a sommelier since 2016.

GEORGE HATAJLO

As sommelier for 11 years at the prestigious Bears Den Restaurant, George created and maintained a list of over 450 labels, being given the Award of Excellence by Wine Spectator Magazine nine years in a row.

Although George is partial to the Rhone Region of France, he is a supporter of Canadian producers and a true ambassador of BC wines. He is known for having the most selections in the city on the lists he curates.

Growing up in Montreal in the sixties, weekends were all about family and friends sharing food, wine and music. George embodies the spirit of always trying to bring those experiences to life in his career.

GILBERT DREYFUSS

Gilbert was introduced to wine at a very young age as his father was also a wine connoisseur. He was exposed to some of the world's most interesting wines.

Gilbert has been working in the wine industry in Calgary for over 20 years, first at Kensington Wine Market and currently at Market Wines.

He has visited many world-renowned wine regions including Bordeaux, Burgundy, Catalunya, Chianti, Napa and more. Gilbert has an abundance of wine courses under his belt including the WSET series.

DEVIN RIGAUX

Devin has been working in hospitality for over a decade, started to take wine seriously in 2014. Since then, she has continued her studies, working through the WSET program and completing the diploma, as well as the French Wine Scholar, in 2020.

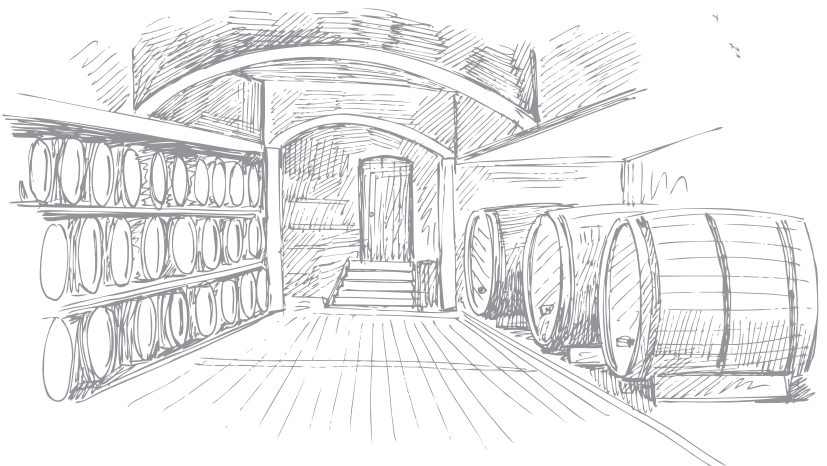

She started the arduous journey with the Master of Wine program in 2021 and is currently a stage two student. Devin's career has developed her expertise in many aspects of the wine world - from on premise, to retail, sales and education. She is passionate about sustainability, overlooked grape varieties and wine regions.

JENNY BOOK

Wine educator, contract speaker, freelance writer and wine and spirit judge. With over 20 years of experience in the wine industry, Jenny has dabbled in many facets of the wine world.
