2-FOREWORDS

On behalf of our city, it is my honor to welcome you to Fayetteville, Arkansas, for the 2022 Walmart UCI Cyclo-cross World Championship event. While you're here, it is my hope that you will feel the open-door, open-mind, open-heart philosophy that permeates throughout our city.

Preparing for your arrival has been an exciting journey for us. I have proudly watched as Centennial Park grew from rough wooded terrain to become home to the one-of-a-kind cyclo-cross course that many of you will battle over the next few days. I look forward to watching, along with fans from around the world, and I wish you the best of luck.

We know that UCI could've chosen any number of cities to host — both in the United States and abroad. I am proud to be mayor of the second U.S. host city chosen in the race's 70-plus years, and I look forward to counting this among my favorite accomplishments.

While you're here, I invite you to experience Fayetteville and our thriving art scene, culinary gems, nightlife, historic sites and cultural attractions. I hope I get to meet some of you while you're out exploring, and that I'll have an opportunity to ask, "Don't you just love this city?" ... and that your answer will be, "Yes!"

Lionel Jordan
Mayor of Fayetteville

EXPERIENCE FAYETTEVILLE

On behalf of Experience
Fayetteville:
Welcome!

As chief executive officer of Experience Fayetteville, our city's destination marketing organization, I am beyond excited to have you and your team visiting Fayetteville for the 2022 Walmart UCI Cyclo-cross World Championship. We are honored and excited to be the second U.S. city to host this event in its 72-year history.

The Fayetteville experience is as varied and diverse as the people who live, work and play here. That is reflected in our thriving arts scene, legendary live music and nightlife, culinary treasures and in the events and attractions that make our city and region so special.

Surrounded by the beauty of the Ozark Mountains, our community prides itself on being inclusive and welcoming to all. That's part of the reason we've been ranked, for the sixth year in a row, by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top 10 best places to live in the United States.

While you're here, I hope you will enjoy our hospitality and world class amenity, Centennial Park, home to the one-of-a-kind cyclo-cross course where you will race. And while I know you'll have a busy schedule, I hope you will have time to stop by the Experience Fayetteville Visitors Center to say "Hello" and let us welcome you. This is also the perfect place to pick up a souvenir and learn more about all the fun things to do in our area. This may be your first time in Fayetteville, but we hope it won't be your last!

Wherever you go while you're here, sincere service, genuine people and engaging experiences await you and we're so happy you are here.

Molly Rawn, CEO
Experience Fayetteville

I am delighted that the UCI Cyclo-cross World Championships are returning to the United States, nine years after they were held in the country for the first time, in Louisville.

In 2022, our UCI Cyclo-cross World Champions will be crowned in Fayetteville, Arkansas. But first they will need to conquer a challenging course on the slopes of Millsap Mountain and its newly created Centennial Park that will include artificial footbridges and technical descents and climbs.

This former agricultural site, just minutes from the heart of central Fayetteville, is an ideal venue for our leading cyclo-cross event of the year. While it is ready to host the world's Elite athletes, Centennial Park is also open to local residents and visitors, who can ride on an extensive network of trails.

It is exactly this commitment to cycling at all levels that helped Fayetteville earn the UCI Bike City label in 2021. The city has a comprehensive bicycle master plan that includes investment in infrastructure, trails, road safety and children's cycling initiatives.

But on 28-30 January, it will be the domain of the very best Junior, Under-23 and Elite riders as they vie for the prestigious rainbow jersey. This annual event traditionally attracts hundreds of athletes and team members, thousands of on-site spectators and millions of television viewers around the world. Its organisation is a huge undertaking, and I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Organising Committee, officials, sponsors and volunteers, as well as USA Cycling under the leadership of its President and CEO Brendan Quirk.

I am greatly looking forward to following the racing in Fayetteville, where the very first UCI World Champions of 2022 will be crowned.

Good luck to all those taking part!

David Lappartient
UCI President
