Mentougou, a Premier Cycling Destination

Mentougou District is located in the west of Beijing, covering a total area of approximately 1,400 square kilometers and with a population of 396,000. The urban center lies 21 kilometers from Tian'anmen Square in a straight line, serving as a crucial gateway for the capital's development. With its beautiful natural scenery and profound cultural heritage, Mentougou is a livable place and an ideal cycling destination.

Mentougou is committed to creating a cycling-friendly environment. With cycling stations, signage systems, cycling murals, parking facilities, comprehensive cycling service stores, and full catering services, Mentougou has become a premier cycling destination.

Mentougou emphasizes the fostering of cycling culture, leveraging cycling-related activities such as cycling experiences, cycling communities, cycling photography exhibitions, cycling culture salons, and creative cycling graffiti, to integrate cycling into citizens' lives, making cycling a daily routine and a source of enjoyment.

Mentougou, a paradise for cycling, contains numerous classic routes well worth exploring and features a cycling-friendly environment, a profound cycling culture and a growing cycling industry. It is recognized as an ideal cycling destination by both domestic and global cyclists. This coming October, Mentougou will host top-tier UCI international cycling events, and draw global attention.

Mentougou sincerely welcomes friends from all over the world. The premier cycling destination awaits you!

Venue Layout Planning Drawing

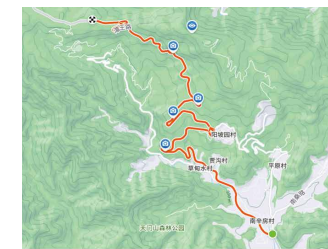

The background is a dark, textured surface with prominent white and red brushstrokes. A large, bright red stroke runs diagonally from the top right towards the bottom left. Another red stroke is visible in the bottom left corner. White, splattered brushstrokes are scattered across the upper right and middle sections. The overall effect is gritty and high-contrast.

Mentougou

Nestled in western Beijing, Mentougou is the closest eco-new town to the city center, merely 21 kilometers straight-line distance from Tian'anmen Square. Boasting convenient multi-layered transportation networks, diverse mountainous terrain and millennium-old ancient trail heritage, it stands as a prime venue of choice for world-class cycling competitions.

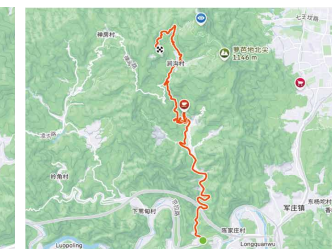

With high forest coverage and layered landscapes, Mentougou boasts gentle river valleys, rolling slopes and tough climbs. Five local cycling routes are listed on the China Cycling Map Premium Routes, attracting cycling lovers from around the globe all year round. A complete cycling-friendly support system spans the district, including standardized cycling stations, bilingual signage, exclusive bike parking, professional service shops and catering amenities.

Tanwang Road Cycling Route

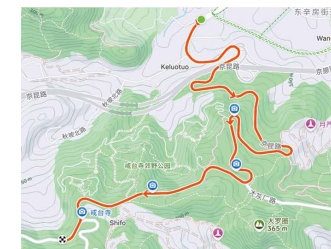

Cycling distance: 11.92km
Total ascent: 522m

Miaofengshan Road Cycling Route

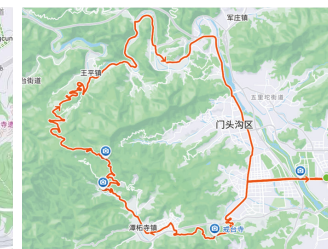

Cycling distance: 19.97km

The "Wings of western Beijing" Cycling Route

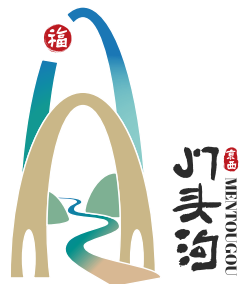

Cycling distance: 141.41km
Total ascent: 3077m

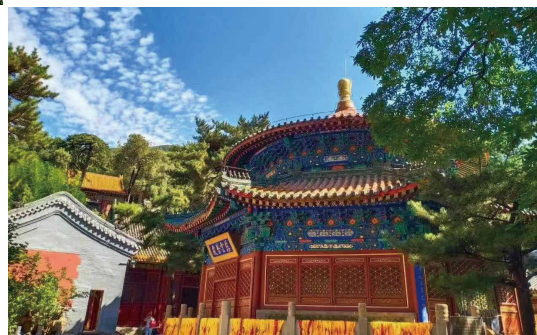

The natural scenery is beautiful, making it a national forest city.

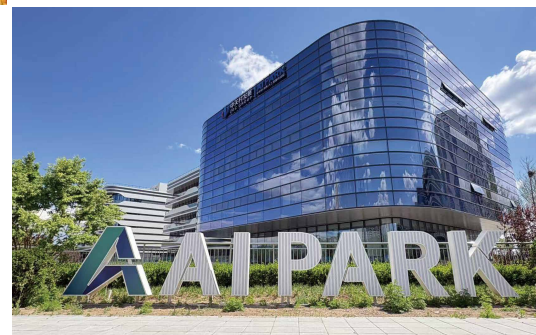

A warm residence provides peace and sense of belonging.

This is a serene paradise for relaxation of body and mind.

This place has a profound cultural heritage.

A promising place with opportunities and vitality.

The background is a dark, textured surface. It features several prominent brushstrokes: a large, bright red one in the top right corner, another red one in the bottom left, and a white one in the top center. A series of parallel, diagonal lines resembling a tire track or a road surface are visible in the lower right quadrant.
