Subject Update - 2025 UCI Track Nations Cup

Following the most recent UCI Management Committee meeting, we would like to inform you that exceptionally for 2025, the eligibility criteria regarding mandatory participation at the UCI Track Nations Cup (article 9.2.027bis of the UCI Regulations) will not apply for the 2025 Tissot UCI Track World Championships to be held in Santiago (CHI):

9.2.027bis

Notwithstanding articles 9.2.025, 9.2.026 and 9.2.027, a nation will only be allowed to enter a rider in a specific event of the Elite World Championships if the following conditions are fulfilled:

- where applicable, the nation must have participated in this specific event in at least one leg of the Nations' Cup of this season. This only applies when the specific events are scheduled at each leg of the Nations' Cup.*
- where applicable, the nation must have participated in this specific event in the most recent Elite Continental Championships.*

Please note this is only applicable for the 2025 season, and only for the criteria related to the UCI Track Nations Cup. The other eligibility conditions (including participation at the Continent Championships and article 9.2.025) remain applicable for eligibility to the UCI Track World Championships.

We also take the opportunity to remind you of the minimum points eligibility for participation at the UCI Track Nations Cup (article 3.4.004):

- Minimum 500 points in the UCI Individual ranking – Endurance for participation in the Omnium, Elimination Race
- Minimum 500 points in the UCI Individual ranking – Sprint for participation in the Sprint, Keirin
- Minimum 250 points in the UCI Individual ranking – Madison for participation in the Madison
- No minimum points necessary for participation in the Team Pursuit, Team Sprint

In any case, the UCI Track Unit remains available by email (track@uci.ch) for any questions on eligibility matters or other topics.
