

20 - 24 August 2025APELDOORN

Apeldoorn, the green and royal capital of the Veluwe, is a haven for those seeking tranquility amidst nature. Its natural beauty attracted the Dutch royal family, who chose this city as their residence. The famous Het Loo Palace and its royal gardens are open to the public, showcasing Apeldoorn's rich royal history.

The city offers numerous attractions, theatres, museums, and concert halls: observe monkeys roaming free at Apenheul, enjoy contemporary art at the CODA Museum, or search for the 'Veluwe Big Five' in the Hoge Veluwe National Park. Thanks to its natural surroundings, Apeldoorn is popular for outdoor recreation, particularly hiking and cycling.

Apeldoorn is a central hub for sports, particularly cycling. The Omnisport Apeldoorn complex, featuring a world-class velodrome, has hosted numerous prestigious events, including the UCI Track World Championships and other international competitions. This venue highlights the city's dedication to sports and its capability to host events under the auspices of the Union Cycliste Internationale (UCI). The city's sports facilities also extend to other disciplines, offering residents and visitors a wide range of activities.

Apeldoorn's city center boasts a variety of shops, from international chains to unique local boutiques. Whether strolling along Hoofdstraat or exploring the charming side streets, you will surely find something that catches your eye. Conclude your visit with lunch or dinner at one of the many restaurants or unwind on a sunny terrace.

With its balance of historical heritage, cultural vibrancy, sports commitment, and natural environment, Apeldoorn stands out as a model city. Its numerous attractions offer its residents an enviable quality of life and attract visitors worldwide. Innovative and environmentally conscious, Apeldoorn continues to develop while preserving its core values, solidifying its national and international reputation.
