

TREAT MOM TO A DAY OFF

Cut out each piece, put it in a hat, and let Mom choose! That'll become your do-to list for the day.

I will pick up my toys, books, and clothes from the floor and put them in their proper places.

I will show Mom a funny video.

I will wash my hands and use a napkin at every meal today.

I will let Mom choose the story for our snuggle time together.

I will pose for photos with Mom and promise to smile nicely in at least one.

I will make Mom some special jewelry that she can wear today.

I will make Mom a yummy snack (with help from other family members, if needed).

I will not hand Mom my trash. I will put it in the garbage instead.

I will take a bath or shower without complaining.

I will brush my teeth vigorously for a full two minutes even if no one watches.

I will teach Mom how to do something new.

I will go on a walk with Mom and not beg her to carry me.

I will compose a song about Mom and sing it to her.

I will give Mom a bouquet of flowers. (Hint: They don't have to be real!)

I will play quietly while Mom reads a book or takes a nap.

I will set the table and put away my dishes after eating.

I will make sure the toilet paper is rolled up and the toilet seat is clean.

I will draw Mom a special picture, or create another kind of art for her.

I will perform a play or puppet show to entertain Mom after dinner.

I will tell Mom how very, very, VERY much I love her.
