Downtown LA

A flexible office space within an art-deco landmark

A converted six-story department store from the 1930s in Los Angeles, California, houses our newest shared workspace. In collaboration with historic conservationists, our design team has imagined a designer office space complete with gourmet kitchens and custom furnishings. Conveniently located a block from Pershing Square and close to numerous parking garages, Downtown LA shared workspace location is ideal for locals and commuters alike. Choose from private office rentals of all sizes and floor-through suites accommodate businesses of any size.
