Bob Evans Restaurants Continues Its Support of Veterans with Free Meal Offer on November 11
Special all-day menu to include seven farm-fresh breakfast, lunch and dinner options

NEW ALBANY, Ohio, November 6, 2020 – As a military veteran himself, Bob Evans knew one of the best ways to show gratitude and provide comfort to this group of honored men and women was through a homecooked meal. A special Veterans Day menu will be available all day and includes a variety of breakfast, lunch and dinner dishes that guests can choose from when they dine in.

“We invite all veterans and active duty military to come enjoy a comforting meal at their local Bob Evans as a token of our thanks for their bravery and service to our country,” said Saed Mohseni, CEO of Bob Evans Restaurants. “Our founder, Bob Evans, served in the military and we’re privileged to continue to honor his legacy by thanking the men and women who serve, or have served, with this Veterans Day offering.”
