FINDINGS: On September 27, 2019, Nadex Compliance sent Keng Yeow Tan ("Tan") an email requesting information regarding general background, source of funds, and details regarding his order and trading activity. Although he responded to certain inquiries and requests for information, he failed to provide complete and truthful details regarding connections with other Nadex Members and did not adequately respond to questions regarding sources of funding. Also, he failed to disclose to Nadex on his Membership application that his trading privileges had been revoked by IG Group in August 2019. Also, Compliance found that he funded his account, at least in part, via a third-party source. Additionally, the investigation revealed that he executed trades in his Nadex account with third party funds and traded his account, at least in part, on behalf of that third party via a transfer of trading profits back to the third-party entity. Further, Compliance found that he indirectly funded multiple accounts of other Nadex Members.

Accordingly, the Compliance Department concluded that he violated Exchange Rule 3.3(d)(i) when he failed to immediately notify Nadex in writing that his trading privileges had been revoked by another exchange. The Compliance Department also concluded that he violated Member Acknowledgements and Authorizations, Section (h) of the Nadex Membership Agreement and Exchange Rule 3.3(a) by failing to fully cooperate with its investigation. Additionally, he violated the Nadex Membership Agreement, Member Representations Section (d), when he allowed a third party to have a direct economic interest in the activity and trading in his Nadex account and Nadex Rule 5.19(g)(1) when he executed trades in his Nadex account, at least in part, on a third-party's behalf. Additionally, he violated Nadex Rule 5.19(k) when he provided misleading information to Nadex regarding connections with other Nadex Members. Finally, Tan violated Nadex Rule 3.1(f) by maintaining more than one Nadex account via indirect funding of other Nadex Member accounts.

PENALTY: As a result of the aforementioned violations, the Nadex Compliance Department has deemed it appropriate to fine Keng Yeow Tan $10,000.00. Additionally, Keng Yeow Tan's Nadex Membership has been revoked, his account terminated, and he has been permanently banned from trading on Nadex Markets, either directly for his own account or through an intermediary, or as an authorized trader on behalf of any other account.
