

CHC32015

Certificate III in Community Services

Designed for senior high school students to gain an understanding of the Community Services Industry.

The CHC32015 Certificate III in Community Services course will equip students with foundational skills to support individuals through person-centred services. This may include providing day-to-day assistance in community settings or contributing to community-based programs.

Course Length:	6 months to 1 Year
Designed For:	Year levels 11 or 12
Study Mode:	Classroom and project-based learning, online learning (self-study)
Payment Options:	Fee for service
Units of Competency:	12 Units (4 Core and 8 Elective Units)
QCE Credit Outcome:	Maximum of 8 QCE Credits

- ✓ 6 months to 1 Year Program
- ✓ Nationally Recognised Qualifications

What students achieve

- CHC32015 Certificate III in Community Services
- Nationally recognised qualification
- QCE credits towards Senior Certificate of Education (QCE)
- First Aid and CPR Certificate
- Pathway into further study and employment

Skills acquired

- Effective communication
- Client care
- Responding to client needs
- Working with diverse people
- Communication skills
- Managing personal work stressors in the work environment
- Community engagement
- Promote Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander Cultural safety

Pathways to further study

A range of other certificate level qualifications in:

- Health
- Community Services
- Disability
- Aged Care
- Health Administration

Tertiary level qualifications:

- Bachelor Degree

Employment

A Certificate III in Community Services can serve as a pathway for entering the workforce, equipping individuals with the skills needed to support community members. At this level, workers provide person-centred assistance in community settings, contributing to the implementation of programs and services under supervision, either direct or indirect.

Want to know more?

Scan the QR code or contact us:

 schools@connectngrow.edu.au
 1300 283 662

