

Ngarrngga
to know, to hear, to understand

Curriculum Update

5 new Primary school modules mapped to the Australian, Victorian and New South Wales Curriculum.

These resources are engaging, age-appropriate and practical, and tested in classrooms through our pilot program.

Designed with flexibility and to maximise teacher agency

- Units of Learning
 - A series of interconnected learning experiences designed to showcase Indigenous Knowledge or Focus.
- Pathway Series
 - Flexible pathways offering teachers multiple approaches and options to showcase Indigenous Knowledge or Focus into their teaching.
- Resource Collections
 - A diverse range of multimodal resources showcasing Indigenous Knowledge or Focus, easily adaptable for integration into existing units of learning.
- Standalone Activities
 - Independent activities designed to showcase Indigenous Knowledge or Focus in an engaging and meaningful way.

Discover the principles, ethics, and pedagogical considerations behind the resources through our Empowering Educators to Showcase Indigenous Knowledge blog series

Empowering Educators to Showcase
Indigenous Knowledge
blog series

Building a Ngarrngga Curriculum

Ngarrngga's Framework for Curriculum Interpretation and Enactment

Ngarrngga's Model for Resource Creation

Ngarrngga's Stance on Learning Design

How Ngarrngga works with curriculum