MAY EDITION

S4SF

This Mother's Day '23, the We Rise Together team planted trees to make a positive impact by giving back to nature & leaving a legacy of love for future generations to enjoy. If we are grateful to natural resources for our existence then we are bound to worship them too and it's our moral duty to take care of and keep the resources clean. Therefore our team also cleaned river Yamuna, our inheritance.

SHE HYGIENE

Menstrual Hygiene Day is a day not only for awareness but also for action. To aid who are in dire need of better menstrual hygiene, the We Rise Together team donated eco-friendly sanitary pads to 332 girls in the month of May. Safe and hygienic menstruation is important. We continuously work to help those who need it the most by educating girls and women about menstrual poverty.

QUESTION OF THE MONTH

If there's one thing our generation should be feared of, it's not the awakening cases of mental health, it's not the fact that SDG goals are not yet completely achieved, instead it's a cause which is the most important of all, it's a cause which leads to every other thing, climate change it is. It is on its peak and day by day getting scarier. State your opinion on if climate is really the most important factor? Is climate change really coming at its peak?
