Prior to fiscal 2026, the Company has conducted its operations through two business units: (1) Analytics and (2) Appraisals and Development Advisory ("A&DA"). During the reporting period ended March 31, 2026, the Company sold its Appraisals business, previously presented as discontinued operations and classified as held for sale as at December 31, 2025. During the reporting period ended September 30, 2026, the Company sold its Development Advisory business, previously presented as discontinued operations. Following this activity, the Company reassessed its external segment reporting structure and determined that the business now operates under one reportable segment.

The address of the Company's registered office is 33 Yonge Street, Suite 810, Toronto, Ontario, Canada. The Company is listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX") under the symbol AIF and is domiciled in Canada.

"Altus Group" refers to the consolidated operations of the Company.

2. Basis of Preparation

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements ("interim financial statements") as at and for the period ended September 30, 2026 follow the same accounting policies and methods of application as those used in the Company's most recent audited annual consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2025, except as disclosed below.

These interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard ("IAS") 34, Interim Financial Reporting. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and disclosures required in annual financial statements prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and should be read in conjunction with the Company's audited annual consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2025.

These interim financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors for issue on November 5, 2026.

3. Changes in Material Accounting Policies and Estimates

Presentation of Share Buyback Taxes Paid

During the period ended September 30, 2026, the Company changed the classification of the share buyback tax from income taxes paid within operating activities to cancellation of shares within financing activities, as these payments are directly attributable to the repurchase and cancellation of the Company's common shares. Amounts previously reported for the three months ended March 31, 2026 and June 30, 2026 of $771 and $2,314, respectively, have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. Cancellation of shares for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 includes share buyback tax paid of $2,314 and $5,400, respectively. The reclassification had no impact on cash and cash equivalents or on the interim condensed consolidated statements of comprehensive income (loss), balance sheets and changes in equity.

3. Changes in Material Accounting Policies and Estimates, cont'd

Change in Accounting Policy

During the period ended March 31, 2026, the Company changed the method of accounting for purchases of its own share capital (treasury shares). Previously, the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs, was deducted from share capital within equity attributable to the Company's shareholders. With the change in the method of accounting, the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs, is deducted from share capital using the weighted average historic cost of consideration received for the shares purchased and the remainder recorded within retained earnings, within equity attributable to the Company's shareholders.

The change in the method of accounting provides reliable and more relevant information to users of the financial statements, given it separately reflects the historical cost of common shares repurchased, presented within share capital. The cumulative effect of this change in accounting results in an adjustment of $15,071 from share capital to retained earnings as at January 1, 2025, $137,736 as at September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2025, and an incremental adjustment of $27,618 and $374,033 during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively.

Presentation of Expenses

During the year ended December 31, 2025, the Company changed the presentation of its consolidated statements of comprehensive income (loss) from a classification of expenses by nature to a classification by function. The change was made to provide more relevant and reliable information to users of the financial statements by better reflecting the way in which management monitors and evaluates the Company's performance. In accordance with IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements paragraph 41, the comparative information for the period ended September 30, 2025 has been reclassified to conform to the new presentation by function. The reclassification does not impact the measurement of profit or loss or net assets of the Company. As required by IAS 1, the presentation of expenses by nature is included in Note 22.

Adoption of Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7: Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments
In May 2024, the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") issued amendments to IFRS 9, Financial Instruments, and IFRS 7, Financial Instruments: Disclosures, relating to the classification and measurement requirements of financial instruments recognized within those standards. These amendments:

- clarify that a financial liability is to be derecognized on the "settlement date" and introduce an accounting policy to derecognize financial liabilities settled through an electronic payment system before settlement date if certain conditions are met;
- clarify how to assess the contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets that include "environmental, social and governance" linked features and other similar contingent features;
- clarify the treatment of non-recourse assets and contractually linked instruments; and
- require additional disclosures for financial assets and liabilities with contractual terms that reference a contingent event and equity instruments classified at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI").

The new guidance is applicable to annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2026 and is to be applied retrospectively. These amendments did not have a material impact on the interim financial statements.

Future Accounting Pronouncements

Issuance of IFRS 18: Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

In April 2024, the IASB issued IFRS 18, Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements, which will replace IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements. The issuance introduces new categories and subtotals in the statement of comprehensive income (loss), requires disclosure of management-defined performance measures ("MPMs"), and includes new requirements for the location, aggregation and disaggregation of financial information. The Company has identified the following potential impacts as part of a preliminary assessment:

- There is not expected to be an impact on net income; however, items of income and expenses in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income (loss) may be grouped into new categories resulting in new subtotals and/or line items being presented.
- There is not expected to be a significant change in the information that is currently disclosed in the notes; however, there will be new disclosures required for MPMs, which the standards define as a subtotal of income and expenses that an entity uses in public communications outside financial statements, to communicate management's view of an aspect of the financial performance of the entity. The Company has performed an initial assessment of the performance measures that are currently used in communications outside of the consolidated financial statements and believes that the following may meet the MPM definition: Adjusted earnings and Adjusted EBITDA.

IFRS 18 will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2027 and will apply retrospectively. The Company is in the process of evaluating the impact of this standard on its interim financial statements.

4. Critical Accounting Estimates and Judgments

The preparation of interim financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make estimates and assumptions concerning the future. It also requires management to exercise judgment in applying the Company's accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses, and related disclosures. Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on current facts, historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the actual results. The significant judgments made by management in applying the Company's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those described in the most recent audited annual consolidated financial statements.

5. Acquisitions

Assets:
Investments in equity instruments	$ -	$ -	$ 2,290	$ 2,290

Liabilities:
Borrowings	-	155,715	-	155,715

On April 29, 2022, the Company entered into interest rate swap agreements for a total notional amount of GBP57,000. The Company is obligated to pay the counterparty to the swap agreements an amount based upon a fixed interest rate of 2.07% per annum, and the counterparty is obligated to pay the Company an amount equal to the GBP – SONIA. These agreements expire on April 13, 2027. These interest rate swaps are not designated as cash flow hedges.

Cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and other (excluding deferred costs to obtain customer contracts, and prepayments) due within one year, and trade payables and other (excluding contract liabilities, LTIRSU Plan, RSU Plan and DSU Plan payables, and contingent consideration payables) due within one year, are all short-term in nature and, as such, their carrying values approximate their fair values. The fair values of non-current trade receivables and other and trade payables and other are estimated by discounting the future contractual cash flows at the cost of borrowing to the Company, which approximate their carrying values.

20. Financial Instruments and Fair Values, cont'd

Derivative financial instruments are recorded in Level 2. The fair value of interest rate swaps is calculated as the present value of the estimated future cash flows based on observable yield curves. The fair value of equity derivatives is calculated based on the movement in the Company's common share price between the initial common share price on the effective date and the reporting date, which are observable inputs. The fair value of currency forward contracts is calculated based on the spread between the currency forward rate and the rate on the reporting date, which are observable inputs, and applied to the notional amount.

The fair value of the bank credit facilities approximates their carrying value, as the instruments bear interest at rates comparable to current market rates. The fair value of contingent consideration payables approximates their carrying value, as the valuation techniques and discount rates applied are comparable to those based on observable market data, where available.

Although it is not possible to determine the final outcome of such matters, based on all currently available information, management believes that liabilities, if any, arising from such matters will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations and have been adequately provided for in these interim financial statements.

In the ordinary course of business, the Company is subject to tax audits from various government agencies relating to income and commodity taxes. As a result, from time to time, the tax authorities may disagree with the positions and conclusions made by the Company in its tax filings, which could lead to assessments and reassessments.
