For whom is the application form?

The form is intended for an individual intending to apply for a long-term visa

Rights

Permission to stay beyond the 90 days which the applicant may otherwise stay as a tourist.

What documents must accompany the application?

See further information on the website of the Directorate of Immigration about requirements for accompanying documents and data regarding a long-term visa.

- Documents confirming the purpose of the stay in Iceland.
- Documents confirming that the applicant is able to support himself financially during the stay in Iceland.
- Confirmation of health insurance.
- Return ticket or proof of the applicant's ability to pay for his travel back to the home country.
- Passport size photo (35mmX45mm).
- Copies of passport.
- If deemed necessary, the Directorate of Immigration may ask for a criminal record check.

How is an application submitted?

An application may be submitted and paid for at the reception desk of the Directorate of Immigration.

Objectives regarding time of procedure and process

The Directorate of Immigration expedites as possible its processing of applications in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act no. 37/1993. If the applicant provides all the required information in the application form and submits satisfactory accompanying documents with the application, the processing of the application will take less time.

The processing time of long term visas may be as long as 14 days after satisfactory documents have been received, however, longer in instances of applications needing more effort in order to determine whether an applicant meets the requirements of a long-term visa.

The Directorate of Immigration contacts the applicant or his/her representative if further documents are needed for processing the application.

Please note that front desk agents cannot determine whether documentation meets the required criteria

Other information

Please make sure that you apply for a long term visa at least 14 days before your current visa expires or before your 90 visa free days are up.
