Which of the companies above would you most like to work for and why?

Meet the apprentice

CLASSROOM ACTIVITY

Use the word bank to fill in the blank spaces in the text to learn more about what an apprenticeship is like. You can only use the words once, so it might be helpful to tick them off as you go.

ABOUT ME

Hi, I'm Alexandra Neale and I live in London. I am currently a degree apprentice with _____, which means I work for 4 days a week. I get _____ and my employer pays for me to go to _____ on a Friday.
A fun fact about me is that I have two _____ - one is called Chicken!

MY APPRENTICESHIP

Millwall Football Club has quite a small team of office employees. My job is 'Conference & Business Development Executive' and I get to move around to different _____ and learn about lots of _____ and skills in each of these. I have been able to work in Events, Marketing and Commercial departments.

WHY I CHOSE TO BE AN APPRENTICE

There is no 'typical day' for me and I _____ this about my apprenticeship. It is so varied and exciting. I really enjoy having the distinctive working environment of the football stadium. It's not like a _____ office block which makes it quite an exciting place to work!

HIGHLIGHTS

I really enjoy working at different events, such as the End of Season Dinner which is a celebration of the season for players and fans. These are really unique to the _____ industry and therefore provide a varied working experience. Another highlight since starting my apprenticeship was helping to organise the _____, which was a charity event allowing fans to sleep on the pitch overnight, watch movies and enjoy various games, to fundraise for Crisis, a _____ for homeless individuals.

THE FUTURE

One of my career goals is to progress to a level of _____. I would like to be able to apply everything I have _____ through my degree apprenticeship to my own team. I would really recommend doing an apprenticeship! I feel it helps you stand out from the crowd in the job market. Gaining experience, as well as a qualification, means I can put into _____ everything I am learning. There are so many apprenticeships out there, covering a range of interests, meaning there is something for everyone!

Create your own apprenticeship poster

CLASSROOM ACTIVITY

Posters are a great way of informing others about what you have learned. Working in groups, you are going to make a poster to display in your school to raise awareness of apprenticeships.

With your group, follow the instructions below to create a poster.

1. As a group, make a mind map of local employers and pick one that interests you the most.
2. Use the internet to access their company website and check if they offer apprenticeships. Once you have a local employer that offers apprenticeships, follow the next steps.
3. Use their careers page to find information about all of the apprenticeships that they offer.
Please include the different levels of apprenticeship if appropriate.
4. Complete the fact sheet below.
5. Agree on your top answers and create a poster using the information that you have gathered to advertise the apprenticeship opportunities at this company. Be as creative as possible with the design of your poster.

FACT SHEET

Who works here?

CLASSROOM ACTIVITY

When travelling through a train station, visiting a hospital or a leisure centre, have you ever thought about all the different careers available? List all the job roles that you can think of in each location. Try to think outside of the box. Remember there are people who work behind the scenes in each of these places and many of these could be apprentices. Be ready to share your ideas with the class.

Which of these places would you most like to work in and why?

What skills will you need?

ACTIVITY

There are many different jobs in the world, but a lot of the skills needed for these jobs are the same. For this activity, think of a job you would like to have in the future. You will then consider which skills you already have and which skills you may still need to develop.

A job I might like to have in the future is: _____

I would like to do this because: _____

ACTIVITY

Look at the employability skills listed below. Highlight/underline the 7 that you think are most necessary for your desired job.

Team work	Creativity	Communication	Planning	ICT skills
Positive attitude	Problem solving	Co-operating	Listening	Flexibility
Organisation	Leadership	Presenting	Questioning	Literacy skills
Working to deadlines	Negotiating	Open mindedness	Numeracy skills	Independent working

ACTIVITY

List the 7 skills you have chosen in the table below. Colour code your list using the code below. Think about how you might develop some of the red skills as you go through school.

GREEN = I'm good at this currently

YELLOW = I'm working on this

RED = I need to develop this skill in the future
