Article: 551391 - The F-Dry v-neck t-shirt

Item description: Designed in Switzerland and produced in ODLO's own Romanian facility, the ODLO F-Dry v-neck t-shirt is a year-round staple created for daily comfort and beyond.

Crafted from recycled polypropylene and polyester - a combination that quickly moves water vapour away from the skin - F-Dry pieces are made for high-heart rate activities and daily wear. Any circumstance where active sweat management is needed. Additionally, this v-neck tee boasts a +30 UV protection rating and comes treated with ZeroScent - a bio-based antibacterial finish that limits smells and bacteria buildup.

A next-to-skin performance v-neck t-shirt that's up for anything. A versatile piece you'll reach for regularly.
