Skates, Lights, and Santa: LA's Ultimate Holiday Guide

Lila Victor Dec 7, 2024 Updated Dec 9, 2024

LOS ANGELES – While LA isn't exactly sought out for its winter attractions – the lack of snow doesn't do it any favors – there's plenty to do across the city this holiday season. From boat parades to ice skating, light displays to “The Nutcracker,” and pub crawls to 5Ks, there's something for everyone to get into the festive spirit.

Ice at Santa Monica:

Ice at Santa Monica returns, this year presented by Disney+. Whether you're a novice or a pro, you're welcome at the rink; stop by for lessons, skating sessions, or one of the special events such as Taylor Swift's birthday celebration, DJ night Wednesdays, or Classical Sundays.

Ice at Santa Monica is located at 1324 5th St, Santa Monica, CA 90401. Tickets start at $25 and can be purchased here. The season goes until Jan. 20, and the rink is open from 11:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. Sunday through Thursday and 11:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. Friday and Saturday.
