GATI One-Day Training Conference!

"Adjusting Your Auditing Perspective: The Windshield vs. The Rearview Mirror" Cost: $350

December 6, 2018, 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. | Capital Gallery, 600 Maryland Ave SW, Wash, DC

This one-day training conference is designed to provide fast-paced, concentrated exposure to new ideas and techniques for performing and leading audits that make a difference. Auditors, and especially audit leaders, need to understand some of the newest concepts and skills that broaden the auditing competencies and add new value. This conference showcases four mini-versions of important contemporary course topics, presented in the morning and repeated in the afternoon. Sessions include:

➤ The Emotionally Intelligent Auditor – Instructor, Michael Binder
➤ Data Analytics: Tools and Techniques – Instructor, Steven Pesklo
➤ Ethical Decision Making for Auditors – Instructor, Dr. Alan Goodman
➤ Enterprise Risk Management – Instructor, Dr. Karen Hardy

Who should attend? Auditors, analysts, program evaluators, and leaders who can apply and promote the new approaches for greater organizational effectiveness.

Government Audit Training Institute

Graduate School USA is committed to helping you achieve your training goals.

Graduate School USA's auditing courses are offered under the auspices of our Government Audit Training Institute (GATI), recognized as the premier provider of training in performance auditing. Since 1978, GATI has provided classes to meet the continuing professional education requirements of the diverse audit community.

GATI courses, as well as other audit-related courses offered by GSUSA, emphasize training for performance auditing, including operational and internal auditing, financial management, program analysis, program evaluation, and effective communication. Courses examine the traditional issues of economy, efficiency, performance measurement, effectiveness, internal control, and fraud. These courses cover the skills required for financial, performance, and compliance auditing and audit leadership.

In addition to open enrollment courses, GATI can present on-site courses domestically or internationally, and customize courses for conferences or special events.
