

Print Instructions

1. Check to make sure you have paper in the printer and your default printer is set to the location where you want the coupons to print.
2. Click the SAVE coupon link above.
3. Then click the red PRINT COUPON button. You may be prompted to install Adobe Acrobat Reader DC so the coupon file will download.
4. Once file downloads and displays in the footer of the browser, double click the file to open.
5. On a desktop, the file will pop up with a message box overlay asking "This document is trying to print. Do you want to allow this?." Select Yes.
6. Your coupon will now automatically print to your default printer.
7. The printed coupon is only valid at retail stores in the U.S. that carry qualifying Almond Breeze® Almondmilk Yogurt Alternative products.
