6. No Shuffle warranties

6.1. The Services are provided to you on an “as is” basis. We disclaim any and all warranties, expressed or implied, in connection with the Services. In particular, we provide you with no warranty or representation whatsoever regarding the Services’ quality, fitness for purpose, completeness, or accuracy, and we make no warranty that any Service will be uninterrupted, timely or error-free, or that any defects will be corrected. In particular, Shuffle does not represent or warrant that the Website is or will be free from errors, bugs and other defects in its functioning, that access to the Services is or will be continuous, uninterrupted, timely, or secure, that the information made available via, contained on or used by the Website, including data feeds used for sports betting, is or will be accurate, reliable, complete, or current, or that the Website will be free from viruses or other harmful material. Information made available via, contained on or used by the Website may be inaccurate or incomplete or otherwise unreliable for a variety of reasons, for example as a result of software bugs, data feed interruptions, platform or server downtime, or other issues, and this may cause losses to you by affecting the functioning of the Services or the resolution of Markets.

6.2. Shuffle may from time to time test new games and other features on the Website by introducing them in beta testing form (“Beta Features”). If you choose to use these Beta Features you do so on the understanding that (i) such features may be particularly unstable and prone to errors and bugs and other defects in functioning and (ii) Shuffle will not be liable for any losses sustained as a result. Beta Features may need to be suspended, discontinued or modified at any time. Any winnings credited to your Shuffle Account which relate to any technical or human error involving a Beta Feature may be deducted at Shuffle’s sole discretion.

7. Prohibited uses

7.1. The use of the Website or any of the Services for any form of illicit activity, including money laundering, terrorist financing or trade sanctions violations, is prohibited.

7.2. The Website and the Services are not offered to individuals or entities subject to United States, European Union, or other global sanctions or watchlists. By using the Website and the Services, you represent and warrant that you are not subject to such sanctions.

7.3. Persons located or resident in Australia, the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, Curaçao, Cyprus, Germany, the Netherlands, Portugal, Singapore, Spain, the United Kingdom, the United States of America and any other location from which use of the Services is not permitted under applicable laws or regulations or where provision of the Services would require licensing or registration or which is embargoed by the United States of America, the European Union or the United Kingdom (the “Prohibited Jurisdictions”) are not permitted to access the Website or the Services. These restrictions apply equally to residents and citizens of other jurisdictions while they are located in a Prohibited Jurisdiction.

7.4. Any attempt to conceal your true location through the use of a VPN, proxy, or similar service or through the provision of incorrect or misleading information about your place of residence or location will constitute a breach of these Terms of Service.

8. Deposits

8.1. You may only participate in a Shuffle game if you have sufficient funds for such participation in your Shuffle Account.

8.2. You may not deposit funds which originate from criminal or other unauthorised activity;

8.3. To deposit funds into your Shuffle Account, you may transfer funds from a cryptocurrency wallet under your control or via any of the other payment methods that may be available from time to time on the Website. Deposits may only be made with your own funds.

8.4. We take no responsibility for any delays to deposits which may arise from or be associated with blockchain transaction times or the use of particular payment methods or which may be caused by any third party.

8.5. We reserve the right to use additional procedures and means to verify your identity when processing deposits into your Shuffle Account.

8.6. Please note that the use of some payment methods may involve additional fees. Your bank or payment service provider may also charge you additional fees for making transfers or converting currencies.

8.7. We may refuse to credit any deposits at our own discretion. If your Shuffle Account has been blocked or suspended, you must refrain from attempting to deposit funds into it. Should you attempt to deposit funds when your Shuffle Account is blocked or suspended, (i) you acknowledge and accept the risk that such deposited funds may be permanently lost, and (ii) if those deposited funds are not lost, we will have the right to retain them.

9. Withdrawals

9.1. Cryptocurrency withdrawals will be made to your stated cryptocurrency wallet address after you make a valid withdrawal request.

9.2. Withdrawals may be restricted if we detect suspicious, unauthorised or illegal activity relating to your Shuffle Account.

9.3. If we mistakenly credit your Shuffle Account with winnings or any other sums that do not belong to you, whether as a result of a technical error or human error or otherwise, such sums will remain our property and will be liable to be deducted from your Shuffle Account. In the event of an incorrect credit to your Shuffle Account, you are obliged to notify us immediately by email at support@shuffle.com upon becoming aware of any such error. If you withdraw funds that do not belong to you before we become aware of such an error, those amounts credited to your Shuffle Account in error will (without prejudice to other remedies and actions that may be available at law) constitute a debt owed by you to us.

9.4. If your Shuffle Account has been closed, locked, blocked or excluded and you wish to recover funds held in it, please contact Shuffle customer support at support@shuffle.com. We reserve the right to refuse to reopen or unlock your Shuffle Account or to allow withdrawals from it if we suspect that you are in breach of these Terms of Service or if we deem it necessary to do so for other reasons, and we may carry out additional KYC verification procedures and other checks for any withdrawal.

10. Bonuses

10.1. We may from time to time offer you bonuses and rewards, such as free spins, cashback, free bets, and extra money to play games with (“Bonuses”). Any such Bonuses will have their own sets of terms and conditions, to which you will need to agree in order to participate.

10.2. We reserve our right to remove any bonus from inactive accounts and accounts that we determine at our sole discretion to be intentionally exploiting a Bonus in bad faith.

10.3. We reserve the right to cancel all Bonuses that have not been claimed within the shorter of any applicable claiming period or 60 days, and to cancel any Bonus at our sole discretion.

11. Sports betting

11.1. Shuffle may offer various sports betting markets from time to time (“Markets”), including pre-match and in-play Markets and single and multi bets. The availability of specific sports, events, or matches for betting is subject to change without prior notice.

11.2. Third party providers will provide information related to sports scores and analytics (“Third Party Content”) for Markets. Shuffle is not responsible for, does not endorse, and makes no representations or warranties concerning any of the Third Party Content made available on the Website. You rely upon such Third Party Content at your own risk.

11.3. Third Party Providers may provide specific rules for resolution of Markets, to which you should refer when participating in them.

11.4. Markets will only be settled following official confirmation of the outcome or otherwise at Shuffle’s sole discretion. If the outcome of a Market cannot be verified officially, we reserve the right to void it. If coverage of a match is abandoned or interrupted but the match proceeds normally, the relevant Markets will be settled according to the relevant results as officially reported.

11.5. If a match deviates significantly from the generally accepted format or rules, Shuffle reserves the right to void any relevant Market.

11.6. If a match is not completed or not played (e.g. through disqualification, interruption, withdrawal, changes in draws, etc.), all undecided Markets will be void. However if the outcome of the Market has already been determined then the Market will be settled accordingly.

11.7. If the outcome of a Market was already known or decided before the placing of a bet, the bet will be void and any winnings may be withheld or deducted and wager amounts returned.

11.8. Betting may be voided in the case of any incorrectly displayed or calculated prices.

11.9. Bets are void on postponed, cancelled, or abandoned Matches. Matches which have their start date altered well in advance to accommodate live TV, or to ease fixture congestion will not be classed as postponed. An abandonment is where a match is halted before the completion of the allocated match time and not played out to conclusion on the same day. Markets which have already been determined at the time of abandonment, such as ‘First Team to Score’, will stand. The Market must be fully determined for bets to stand.

11.10. If a Market is incorrectly settled, Shuffle reserves the right to correct it at any time.

11.11. For prop bets, the following terminology applies:

“Player must play”: applies to all pre-match player prop markets across NBA, NHL, NFL, CBB, and CFB and all in-play player prop markets across MLB, NBA and NFL.

“Player must start”: all prematch MLB player prop markets (pitcher and batter markets) are "Player must start". Bench player markets are not available for pre-match betting. NHL goalie markets are "Goalie Must Start".

11.12. The following rules apply to prop bets:

1. Shuffle reserves the right to void bets placed on known outcomes or known results.
2. Settlements are sourced from the official league data in the box scores: nfl.com, nba.com, mlb.com, and nhl.com.
3. Bets are void on postponed, cancelled, or abandoned matches.

11.13. “Cash Out” is a feature that offers the customer the opportunity to take a return on a bet placed before the bet has reached its conclusion. To Cash Out (where available), click on the Cash Out button next to your bet. The Cash Out amount will then be credited to your account. Once you have chosen to Cash Out, your bet will be deemed concluded and will be unaffected by the final outcome of the relevant event.

11.14. The following also applies to the Cash Out feature:

1. Cash Out will not be available on certain Markets and events.
2. A time delay is applied on every Cash Out.
3. Cash Out will not be available if the event and/or Market you have placed a bet on is suspended.
4. A Cash Out attempt may not be successful if a Market or event is suspended or odds change during the time delay period applied after Cash Out is attempted.
5. Where Cash Out is available on a pre-match event, if we do not cover the event live then Cash Out will be unavailable once the event starts.
6. Your Cash Out value will differ depending on how your selection is performing and may be higher or lower than your original stake.
7. Shuffle reserves the right to reverse the settlement of a Cash Out on any bet that has been settled in error.
8. Shuffle will not be responsible in the event that Cash Out is unavailable because of technical issues. Any bets will be settled as normal based on the final result.

9. Shuffle reserves the right to remove a customer's ability to use the Cash Out feature, or to nullify any use of such feature, in the event of misuse or any other breaches of these Terms of Service.

11.15. A "Maximum Win Limit" will apply to bets on Shuffle. The Maximum Win Limit is the maximum total amount that Shuffle will credit to an individual customer's Shuffle Account in relation to any and all bets placed on (i) a single event or selection or (ii) a single Market or related Markets.

11.16. The Maximum Win Limit is equal to US$500,000, or its equivalent in the currencies in which the relevant bets are placed, calculated at the time each applicable Market is settled.

11.17. If a customer attempts to circumvent any Maximum Win Limits, whether through the use of multiple Shuffle Accounts or through other means, it will constitute a breach of these Terms of Service. In those circumstances, Shuffle may take such action as it sees fit, including cancelling the relevant bets or adjusting or withholding winnings.

11.18. For the avoidance of doubt, the Maximum Win Limit does not impact Shuffle's discretion not to accept a bet or to limit the size of the stake it is willing to accept for a bet, nor does it impact Shuffle's ability to rely on and enforce these Terms of Service or any other applicable terms.

11.19. Unless Shuffle has specifically agreed otherwise, an individual customer's maximum daily winnings are equal to US$500,000, or its equivalent in the currencies in which the relevant bets are placed, calculated at the time each applicable Market is settled.

12. Breach

12.1. Without prejudice to any other rights, if you breach in whole or in part any provision contained herein, we reserve the right to take such action as we see fit, including closing or suspending your Shuffle Account and/or deducting funds from it, terminating our relationship with you under these Terms of Service or any other agreement and/or taking legal action against you.

12.2. You hereby fully indemnify, defend and hold harmless Shuffle and its shareholders, directors, employees and agents from and against all costs, expenses, losses, damages, claims, demands and liabilities (including legal fees and any other charges) that may be incurred or suffered by Shuffle or its shareholders, directors, employees and agents, arising in any way from (i) any breach by you of any part of these Terms of Service; (ii) any violation by you of any law or any third party rights; or (iii) your use of the Services.

13. Limitation of liability

13.1. Under no circumstances shall we be liable for any claims, proceedings, liabilities, costs, losses or special, incidental, direct, indirect or consequential damages (including, without limitation, damages for loss of business profits, business interruption, loss of business information, or any other pecuniary loss) arising out of the use or misuse of the Services. This limitation of liability applies (1) regardless of whether the alleged liability is based on contract, tort, strict liability, statutory liability or any other basis, (2) even in the case of our own negligence, and (3) even if we have been advised of the possibility of such liability.

13.2. The limitations of liability in these Terms of Service shall apply to the fullest extent permitted under applicable laws.

14. Intellectual property

14.1. We and our licensors are the sole holders of all rights in and to the Services and related code, structure and organisation, including copyright, trade secrets, intellectual property and other rights. You may not, within the limits prescribed by applicable laws (a) copy, distribute, publish, reverse engineer, decompile, disassemble, modify, or translate the website, or (b) use any Service in a manner prohibited by applicable laws or regulations (each of the above is an “Unauthorised Use”). We reserve any and all rights implied or otherwise, which are not expressly granted to you hereunder and retain all rights, title and interest in and to the Services. You agree that you will be solely liable for any damage, costs or expenses arising out of or in connection with the commission by you of any Unauthorised Use. You will notify us immediately upon becoming aware of the commission by any person of any Unauthorised Use and will provide us with reasonable assistance with any investigations it conducts in light of the information provided by you in this respect.

14.2. The term “Shuffle”, its domain names and any other trademarks and service marks used by us as part of the Services (the “Trademarks”), are solely owned by us. In addition, all content on the Website, including, but not limited to, the images, pictures, graphics, photographs, animations, videos, music, audio and text (the “Site Contents”) belongs to us and is protected by copyright and/or other intellectual property or other rights. You hereby acknowledge that by using the Services, you obtain no rights in the Site Contents and/or the Trademarks, or any part thereof. Under no circumstances may you use the Site Contents and/or the Trademarks without our prior written consent. You also agree not to do anything that would, or would be reasonably likely to, harm or potentially harm our rights, including our intellectual property rights.

15. Complaints

If you wish to make a complaint regarding the Services, you may contact our customer support team by email at support@shuffle.com.

16. Governing law and jurisdiction

16.1. These Terms of Service shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of England & Wales.

16.2. The courts of England & Wales have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising from or connected with these Terms of Service (including a dispute relating to their existence, validity or termination, or the consequences of their nullity, or any non-contractual obligation arising out of or in connection with them) and you irrevocably waive any right that you may otherwise have had to object to an action being brought in those courts, or to claim that the action has been brought in an inconvenient forum, or that those courts do not have jurisdiction.

16.3. You must bring any and all legal claims under these Terms of Service in your individual capacity and not as a claimant in or member of any purported class action, collective action, private attorney general action, or other representative proceeding. You agree to waive the right to demand a trial by jury, where applicable.

17. Severability

If any provision of these Terms of Service is or becomes illegal, invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction, that shall not affect the validity or enforceability in that jurisdiction of any other provision of these Terms of Service or the validity or enforceability in other jurisdictions of that or any other provision.

18. Assignment

We reserve the right to assign our rights under these Terms of Service, in whole or in part, at any time without notice. You may not assign any of your rights or obligations under these Terms of Service.

19. Miscellaneous

19.1. No waiver by us of any breach of any provision of these Terms of Service shall in any way be construed as a waiver of any subsequent breach of such provision or of any breach of any other provision of these Terms of Service.

19.2. Nothing in these Terms of Service shall create or confer any rights or other benefits in favour of any third parties.

19.3. Nothing in these Terms of Service shall create or be deemed to create a partnership, agency, trust arrangement, fiduciary relationship or joint venture between you and us.

19.4. These Terms of Service constitute the entire understanding and agreement between you and us regarding the Services and supersede any prior agreement, understanding, or arrangement between you and us.
