WORK LAB

VERSATILITY AS TOP PRIORITY

With its exceptional design options, the Work Lab is perfectly suited for creative and agile work.

As a future-oriented conference room it can be used for bar camps, change and transformation workshops as well as seminars with larger groups.

With its versatile and flexible facilities, the Work Lab is designed to promote the exchange of ideas. During the day, the future is being created here. And in the evenings, you celebrate your successes at the same location.
