INGREDIENT HIGHLIGHTS

ANGELICA ROOT

This perennial herb is used in Traditional Chinese Medicine to address a wide range of conditions, including to treat headaches, relieve stress, and to support circulation.

JAPANESE HONEYSUCKLE FLOWER

This fragrant flower has been vital to Traditional Chinese Medicine practices for centuries. Its uses include treating various inflammatory conditions.

VALERIAN ROOT

The root from this herb contains several compounds, including a variety of antioxidants that are believed to reduce anxiety and promote calm.

WHITE WILLOW BARK

The inner bark of the white willow tree contains salicin, which turns into salicylic acid in the body. The pain-relieving compound in aspirin, acetylsalicylic acid, is derived from salicylic acid.

HOW TO USE

One or two capsules (as desired) at meal time.
