This hardy perennial herb, Coptis Chinensis, contains the alkaloid compounds berberine, which has potent antioxidant and anti-inflammatory effects, and coptisine, which supports digestion and reproductive, urinary tract, liver, and gallbladder health.

FAQs

Q: Why is Chinese Goldenseal considered a “cooling” herb?

A: One of the 50 fundamental herbs of Traditional Chinese Medicine, Chinese Goldenseal is considered a “cooling herb” because it has been used to alleviate “hot conditions” by reducing inflammation and removing heat. This balancing of yin (cold) and yang (heat) is integral to the Sunrider Philosophy of Regeneration®.
