

WHERE TO START :

Begin your day in Harvard Square, one of Cambridge's most identifiable squares. The Red Line subway delivers you into the heart of the iconic neighborhood.

When you're ready to see the sights, walk along "Tory Row" on elegant Brattle Street and visit the Longfellow House, Washington's Headquarters National Historic Site. Or, opt to take a short bus ride or walk to the 175-acre Mount Auburn Cemetery, the first garden cemetery in the U.S. Then join an official student led Harvard University tour or simply stroll through Harvard Yard and take in the beautiful and historic campus.

IN THE AFTERNOON:

The museums in Cambridge are plentiful and cannot be missed. Hop back on the Red Line and head to Kendall Square, home to the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). Enjoy an official tour of the MIT campus, also student led, or visit the newly reimagined MIT Museum offering exhibits, programming and hands-on-activities.

Or, see Boston and Cambridge from a new perspective: the Charles River. Paddle Boston offers guided tours and rentals of kayaks, or paddle boards. If relaxing on the water is more your speed, enjoy a fully-narrated sightseeing cruise by the Charles River Boat Company, departing from the Lechmere Canal Park at CambridgeSide in East Cambridge.

AFTER DARK:

With over 300 restaurants to choose from, Cambridge's dining scene truly provides something for everyone — whether you are in the mood for exotic or more traditional New England fare. After dinner, don't miss the live music and nightlife venues that call Central Square home.
