Our focus is to work collaboratively with industry to support improvements to safety, quality and efficiency across Healthcare through the implementation of GS1 standards. This special Global edition highlights some key updates from our work around the world.

A global online conversation to discuss the future of standards for healthcare

Join us for the GS1 Global healthcare summit from November 17 - 19, where we bring together leaders from across the globe. This event includes speakers ranging from government and regulators - to pharmaceutical and medical device manufacturers and wholesalers - to clinicians and other representatives from hospitals, all of whom will share their unique perspectives and expertise.
